"Dreams" of Homecoming

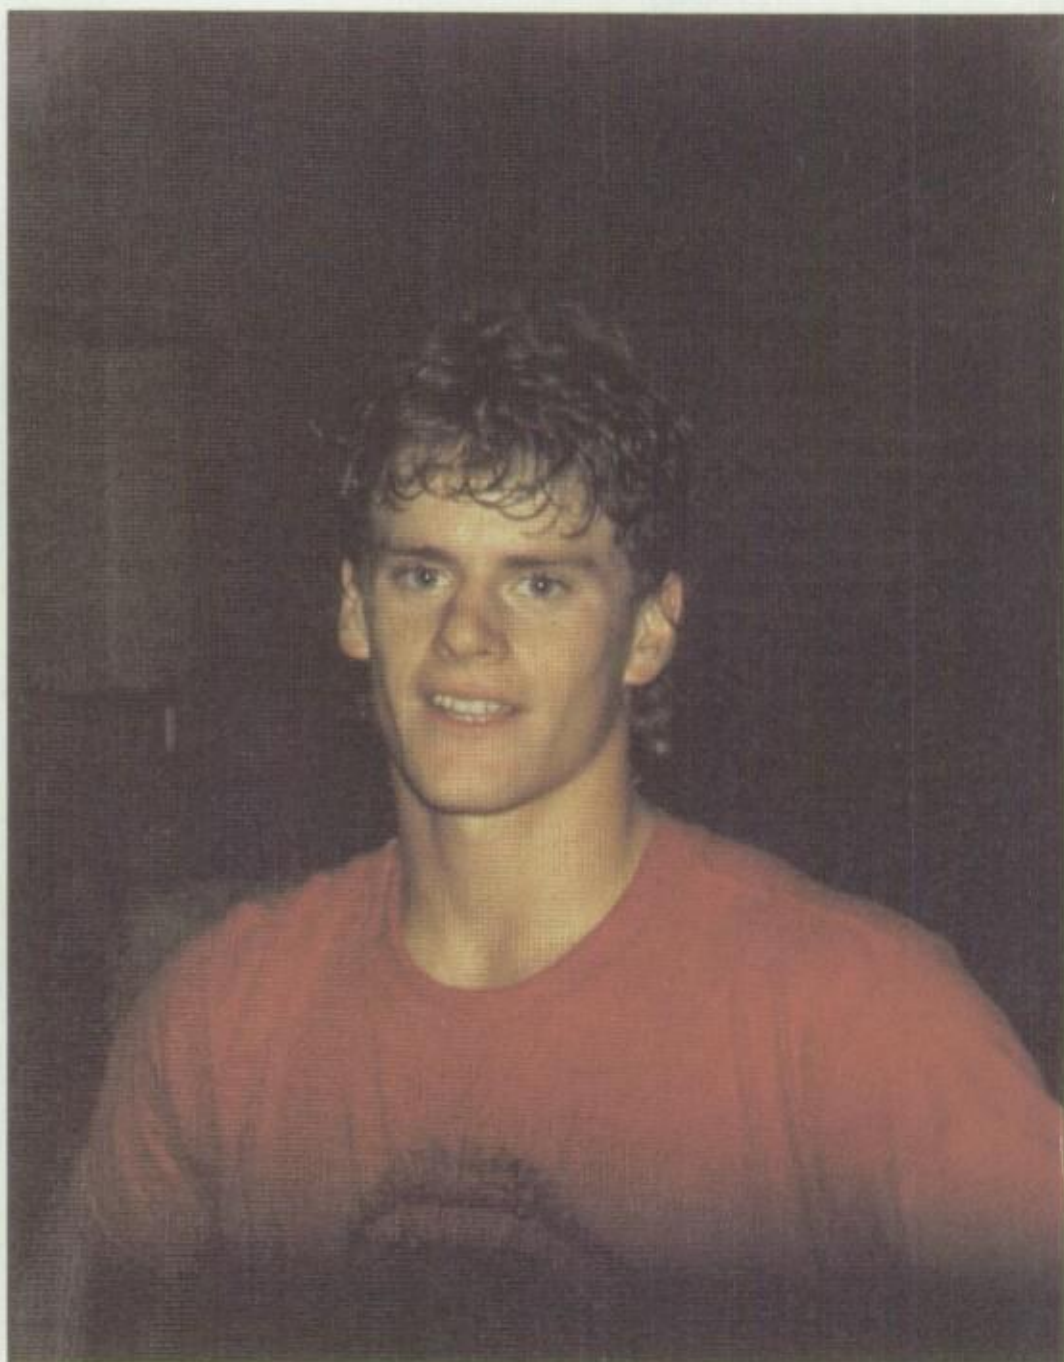

The Homecoming court was filled with excitement and anticipation on the warm sunny day of October 17, 1987. Our football team's winning-streak continued as it crushed the Elco Raiders 35-14. At half time the Marching Band's performance preceded the homecoming ceremony and entertained the audience with the song "Memories" until the queen was announced. Finally the moment we had been waiting for was here. Judi Deitz was announced as the 1987-88 Homecoming Queen. Happily and graciously Judi stepped forward to receive her roses, much congratulations, and many hugs from her friends and family.

Later that evening in the Annville-Cleona gymnasium the queen and her court were crowned at the Homecoming Dance, "Dreams," sponsored by Student Council. The 1986-87 Homecoming Queen, Jennifer Vila, attended the dance in order to crown Judi as queen. Judi, in turn, crowned the remaining members of her court. Barb Arnold, escorted by Gavin Osteen, was crowned as princess, followed by Holly Bryce, escorted by Ron Grier; Deanna Peiffer, escorted by Matt Peiffer; and Sharon Yeakley, escorted by Rob Snyder.

The rest of the court, Barb Arnold, Holly Bryce, Sharon Yeakley, and Deanna Peiffer smiles at the crowd.

Kathy Young struggles for control from Jody Hartman's punishing grip.

Hot and sweaty, the guys eagerly huddle around the water hoses.

During a coffee break, Mr. Capriotti and Mr. Lehman discuss the game plan.
 Shawn Berkhimer strains his muscles to do one more sit-up.

Heather Emrich and Cathy Eisenhower prepare for defense in a field hockey game.

Standing on the sideline, Chance Kersey and Andy Dumbauld commentate the football game.

Strutting their stuff, John Keller, John Ditzler, and Mike Shieber take a pre-game walk.

Come on, Ruel Reigle. Don't cry.

Will Lasky practices his kicking techniques at a scrimmage.

Tired and hot, Sharon Yeakley is disgusted with band camp.

Craig Graby catches his breath while waiting for his match to continue.

Kim Gingrich and Beth Marshall clown around at cheerleading practice.

Alan Funck, Gavin Osteen, and Todd Bowser break away from the huddle determined to defeat the opponent.

Getting psyched for its next game, the soccer team shouts its battle cry.

FOREIGN INVASION AT A-C

Merren Armour's hometown is Canberra, Australia's capital city. She loves living in Australia with her mother, a real estate agent; her father, a small business owner; her two sisters, who are ages 27 and 23; and the family dog. Merren entertains herself with hobbies such as basketball and skiing.

Marcus Wende, from West Germany, lives with his family in St. Georgen, an industrial city located close to the Black Forest, Germany and France. Marcus's hobbies include poker, and hanging out with his friends.

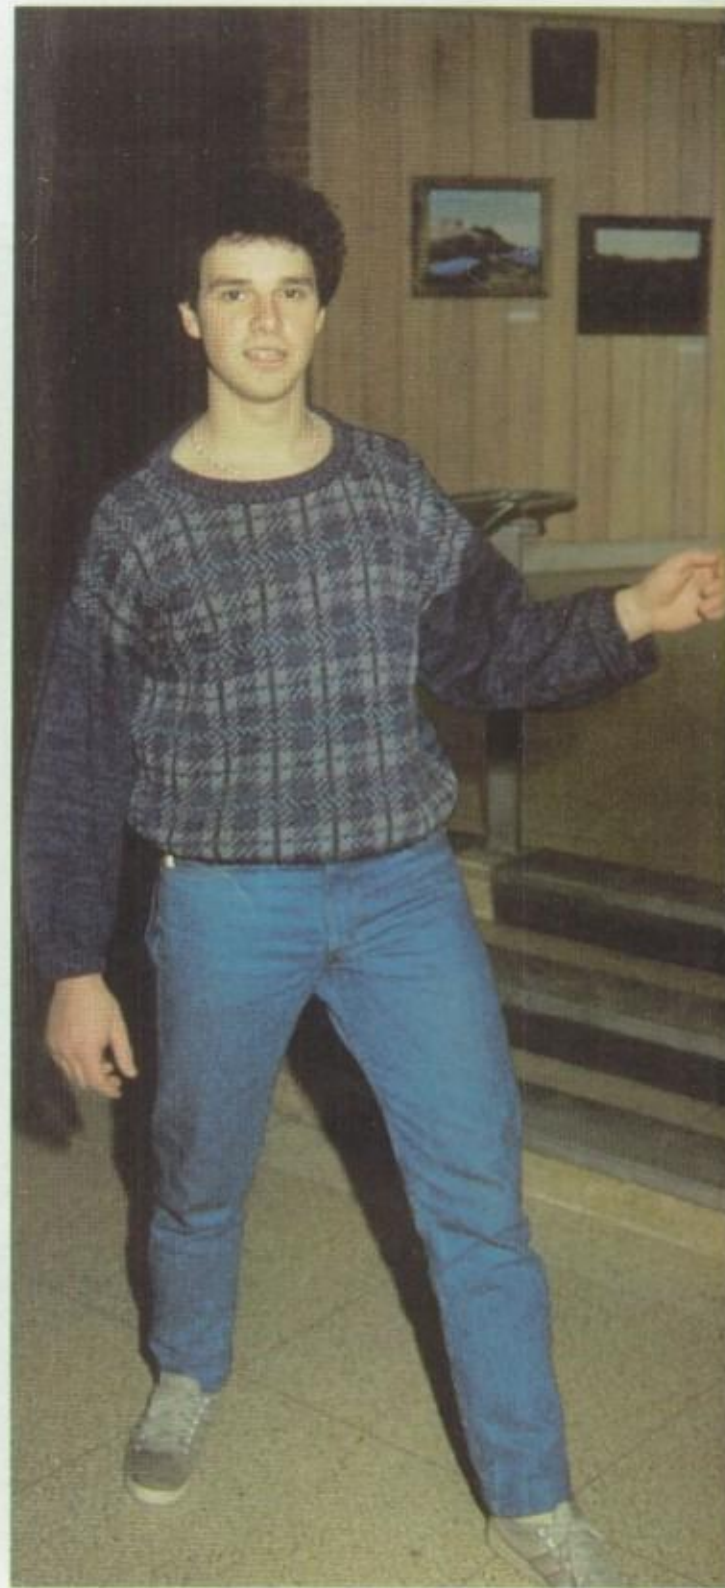

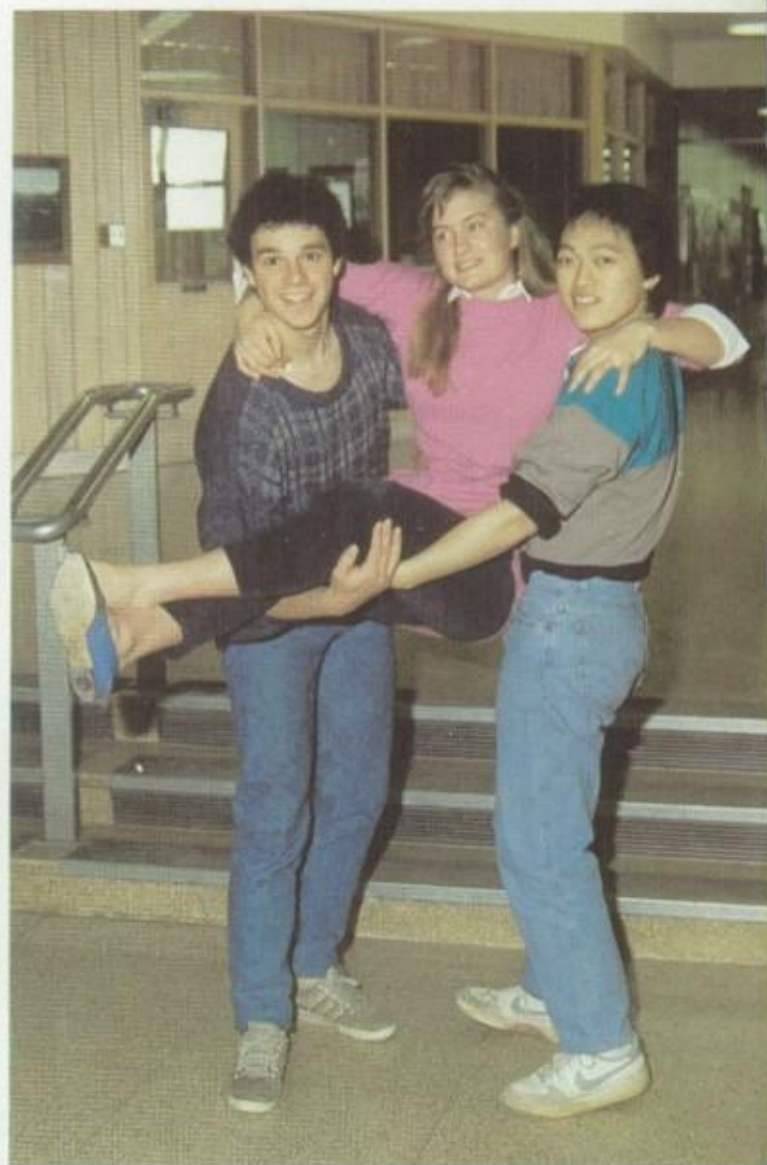

Kyota Kawabe, a seventeen year old from Japan, came to our country because he likes America and is interested in freedom. Kyota and his family live in a wooden house in Kamakura, which is Japan's former capital. Kyota's hobbies are soccer, baseball, American music, and a gambling game called Mahjong.

Exchange students support each other.

Kyota Kawabe looks toward home.

Merren Armour looks stunning at Homecoming.

Marcus Wende dances to the beat of a new school.

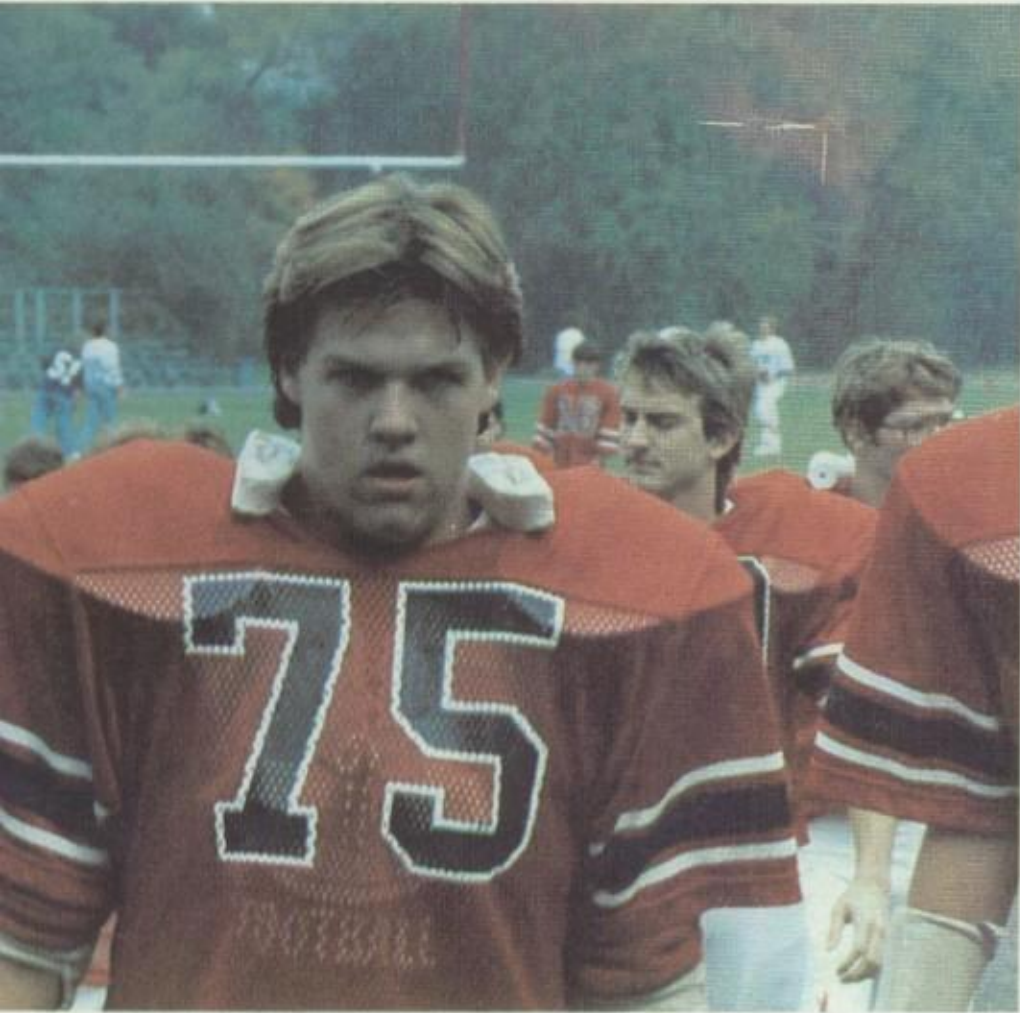

We've Got Legs

Here at Annville-Cleona we are proud of our fine show of legs. During pep week, which was hosted by the cheerleaders from February 3 to 8, the student body chose the best legs in the senior class. Ron Grier, who is posing stunningly on the right, was chosen as the winner of the crazy legs contest. Nice legs, Ron! On the bottom of the page the guys and girls of the Homecoming Court show off their legs. Can you guess who is who?

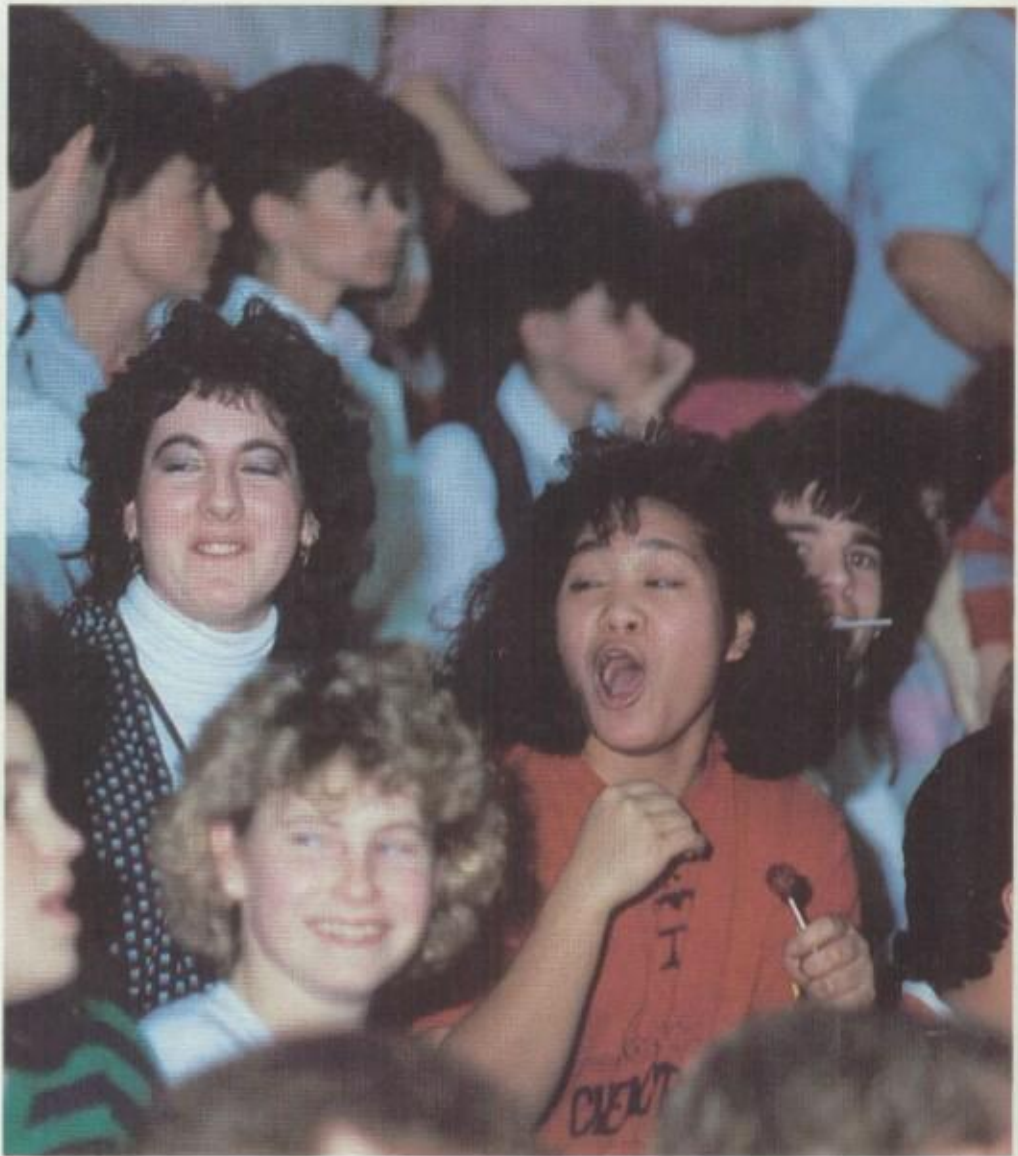

Kris Gacono, put your shirt on!

Missy Grill's brow shows her deep concentration.

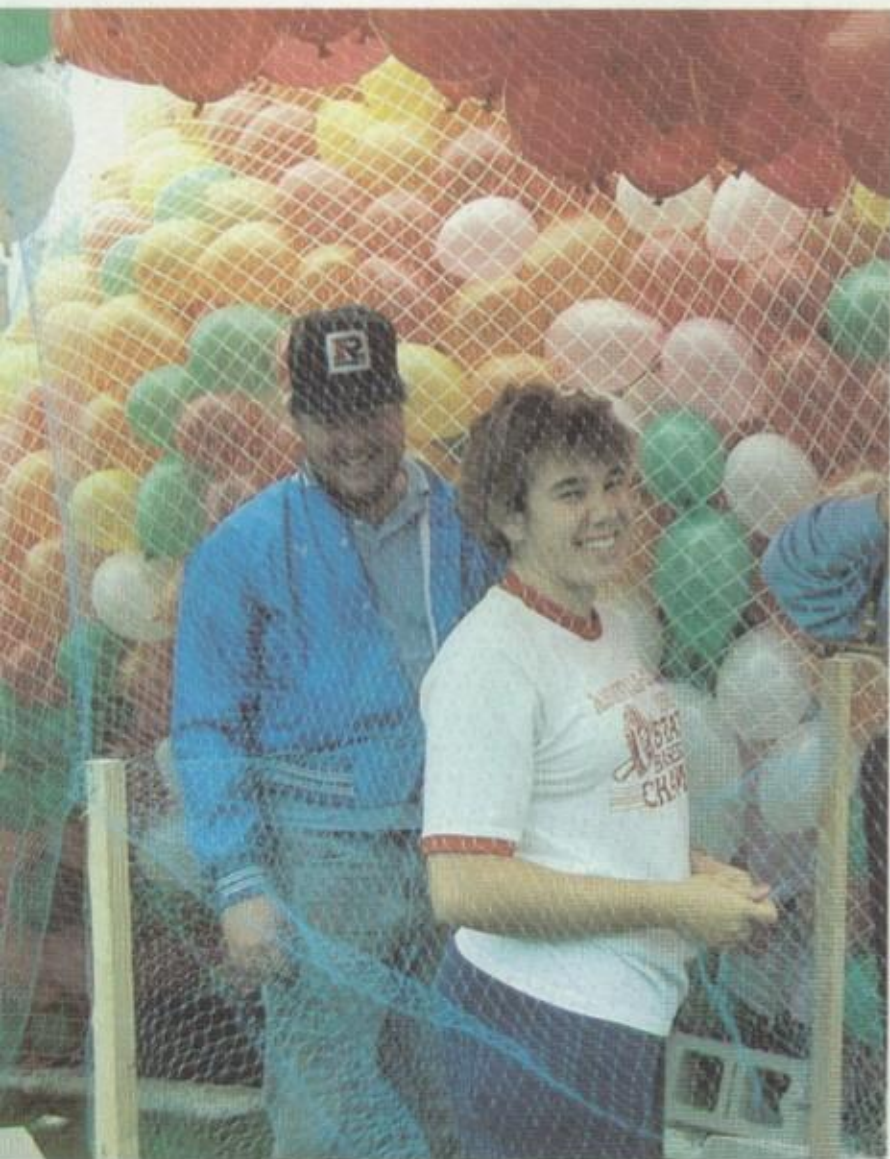

le Ted Laslo. Me mean. Grr."

olly Vann does monkey imitations.

Gina Krall happily gives up her Saturday morning for the United Way balloon festival.

Jenny Osteen gets peppy at cheerleading practice.

Seth Richter wonders, "Is that my hand?"

1988: The Year of Our Lives

After years of taking tests, writing papers, and racing to classes, the senior year finally arrived. The time from September to June passed in a hurried flourish of laughter, tears and tired smiles. Thoughts of the ensuing graduation evoked not only relief and pride of the accomplishment but also sorrow of leaving behind years of friends and memories.

Over the past four years the class worked under the direction of advisor Mrs. Diebus to prepare for the senior year. From mugs to wrapping paper, subs to steak dinners the class worked to raise the much needed funds for graduation. In 1987 the class sponsored the Junior-Senior prom with the theme, "Never Say Goodbye."

As seniors the class was thrust into a position of sudden adulthood with decisions about post-secondary education, financial aid, and employment. Amid the confusion the seniors still found time to dance the night away in the cafeteria and to cheer on two incredible basketball teams in the gym. Still gloomy thoughts of the year's end lurked in the minds of many. Becky Wentling summed it up by saying, "This year has been fabulous but it's hard to leave behind everything we've worked at for four years. I'll miss everyone." The last months of school brought final performances on the auditorium stage and on the athletic fields as well as last minute plans for graduation celebration. Finally the senior breakfast at Lebanon Valley College and graduation rehearsals arrived, followed by commencement. Although the senior year has passed, the memories of ACHS will remain forever.

Class officers: Holly Bryce, treasurer; Todd Bowser, vice-president; Julie Bucks, secretary; and Jim Plummer, president, led the class.

In Memoriam

Mark Christopher Koons

August 30, 1970 — August 6, 1986

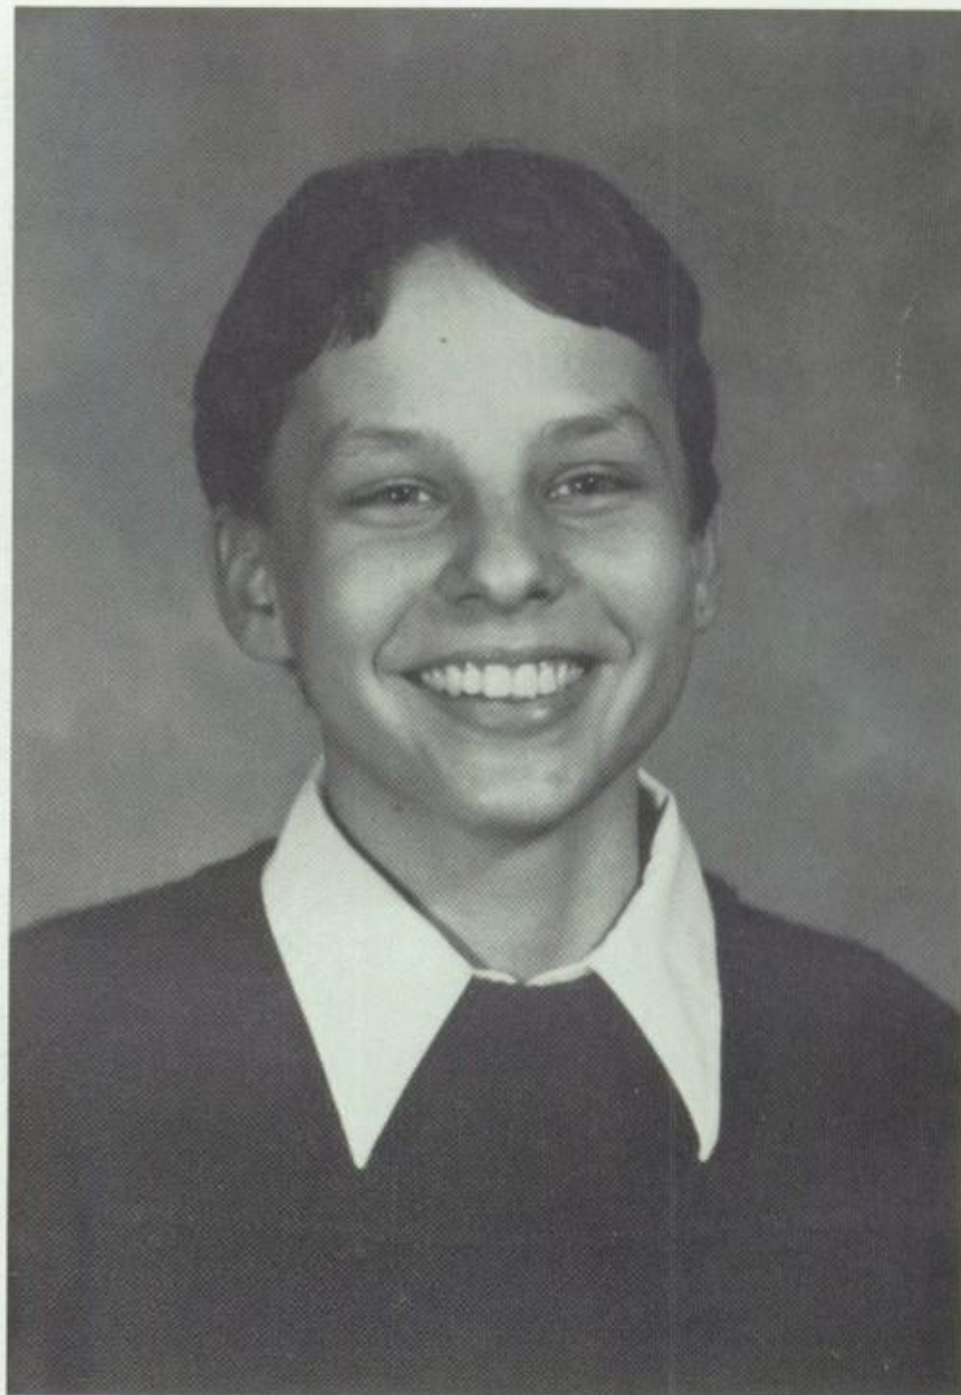

The emptiness and pain that is felt deep inside,
Shall never go away but can only partially hide.

Instead the memories we hold will bring comfort to our hearts. And soothe the pain and emptiness as they start.

We all share this pain from the loss of, Mark, our friend. And we even dare to question God as to why He had to end, the life of someone so close, so young, and so dear. To all of our hearts death sends a terrible fear.

But we should not be afraid for surely everyone must die, And as hard as it may be, We must find the courage to say goodbye.

Goodbye Mark We miss you Your Senior Class

Working Together

Mr. George Bryce, the father of five, has always made it a point to help his children in any way possible. Despite considerable personal hardship, he has still managed to put others first, including his extended family of the class of '88. According to Mrs. Diebus, he has consistently been an advocate for the class and has provided moral support to the officers and advisor. He was a motivator for several fundraisers and considered the steak dinner especially challenging. He was not only pleased that the dinner was a great success but also pleased to see so many parents work together to help. Mr. Bryce has enriched our years at ACHS and we extend our deepest gratitude for this before leaving these halls of learning. So, it is with great honor and respect that we, the Class of '88, dedicate this Corinoma to George Wendall Bryce Jr.

“We extend our thanks for your effort.”

— the Class of '88

Whether working at the football game concession stand or attending his daughter's senior breakfast, Mr. Bryce always involved himself with senior activities.

Administration

The Administrative staff of the Annville-Cleona High School has guided the class of 1988 through six successful years. Our schooling has been made complete with the help of Dr. Carole Spahr, Superintendent since 1986; Mr. James Campbell, Principal for the Seniors from seventh to eleventh grade; Mr. Glenn Worchester, Principal in 1987-88 and Assistant principal from seventh to eleventh grade; and Mrs. Marsha Zehner, Assistant Principal in 1987. The one thing these four have in common is their interest in our well being and their interest in providing students with educational opportunities.

The Board

Though few students realize what the board does for us, we are all affected by their decisions and ideas. At ACHS we have been fortunate to find a group of people who are willing to dedicate their time and intellect to advance education.

Guidance

The Guidance department helps students in all grades decide what to do with their futures. Mrs. Gettle helps students plan for work or education after high school. On the other hand, Mr. Troxell and Mrs. McDaniels help younger students plan their schedules and adjust to high school. When asked how she felt about A-C students, Mrs. McDaniels said, "I like the people here. I think the students are good and have a lot of potential. They're the basic reason for my staying." Mr. Troxell feels that, "We have a unique student body that gets involved with the school." Mrs. Gettle believes that optimism is the key to success. She says, "There is good in everyone and perhaps school activities help bring out those good qualities." Mrs. Gettle compliments our students for their appearance, attitude, and manners. Another helpful person who is sometimes forgotten is the school nurse, Mrs. Baer. She has probably made all of us feel better at some time or another.

Secretaries and Librarians

Without the help of our secretaries and librarians, Mrs. Hartman, Mrs. Tice, Mrs. Good, Mrs. Youtz, Mrs. Kapp, and Mrs. Hitz, Annville-Cleona would have a difficult time functioning. The librarians help students locate books, find information for reports or speeches, and suggest reading material. The secretaries also help run the school by handling communications and keeping records. Both the secretaries and the librarians need to be commended for their excellent work at ACHS.

Throughout the year he told different stories that broke the monotony of the class and made it more interesting. Each one of his stories, coming from his experiences in life, had to do with what we were studying. These stories made learning fun and facts easier to remember. His students all said, "Thanks Mr. Wingholm!"

"Don't give up" I don't want to hear that you don't know how, "just get up there and do it". Looking around the corner, we saw our spunky math teacher chasing Matt to remind him of a test he had missed. It was this persistence that demonstrated that this teacher always cared for us and forced us to think. It is for these qualities that we respect Mrs. Keller.

DID YOU LEAVE YOUR EYES AT HOME?"

He livened a room with both his humor and temper. When in the car with him, we could not forget to bring our eyes because he would ask if we had left them at home.

Teachers Coming and Going

Comings . . . Five new teachers joined the Annville-Cleona staff this year. They were Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Belnick, Ms. Deam, Mrs. Hozella, and Mr. Meyers. Mrs. Jones, the new business teacher, is a former A-C graduate. She enjoys swimming, walking, skiing, and reading. Mr. Meyers, the new English teacher, is also the assistant football and wrestling coach. He enjoys wrestling, in which he participated for five years in college. Mrs. Belnick, a IU-13 teacher, is the cheerleader advisor. She enjoys running. Ms. Deam, IU-13 teacher, has enjoyed running cross country for the last eight years. Mrs. Hozella, the third IU-13 teacher, is currently involved in her graduate studies. She enjoys hiking and reading.

Goings . . . A-C High School has always had dedicated teachers who cared for their students. Sometimes these teachers left us, each for his own reason. Below is a list of some of these teachers who we will remember.

Mrs. Batchelor — Typing, Shorthand, Office Procedures, Office Machines Mrs. Judy Tulli — 9th English
Mr. John Kriefels — English, German Mr. Kenneth Parks — 8th Math Mr. Chet Angelo — Industrial Arts
Miss Wendy Carter — Geography, Math Analysis, Consumer Math Mrs. Maureen Rohrbaugh — Special Class Mrs. Susan Wills — Special Class Mrs. Carolyn Woods — Special Language Mrs. Joyce Dourte — Special Class Miss Judith Clark — Chemistry Mrs. Kline — Science Mrs. Jeanett Carter — Art

While working at her typewriter Mrs. Jones smiles onward. With a pencil in his ear, Mr. Meyers poses for a picture. The new IU-13 teachers . . . Mrs. Hozella, Mrs. Deam, and Mrs. Belnick.

SPECIAL STAFFS

The dedication of staff "behind the scenes" has contributed to yet another successful year at Annville-Cleona High School. Thanks are in order for the people who have allowed this school to continue to function properly. George Loose and his custodial staff have kept our school looking clean and respectable throughout the entire school year. Ozzie Waltz and his bus driving staff have chauffeured students to and from school and extra-curricular activities, as well as maintained our beautiful buses. The cafeteria workers, who are also a valuable asset to the Annville-Cleona school district, have prepared food each day for over 800 students and faculty members. These three SPECIAL STAFFS enable students and faculty members to have numerous enjoyable days in our home away from home.

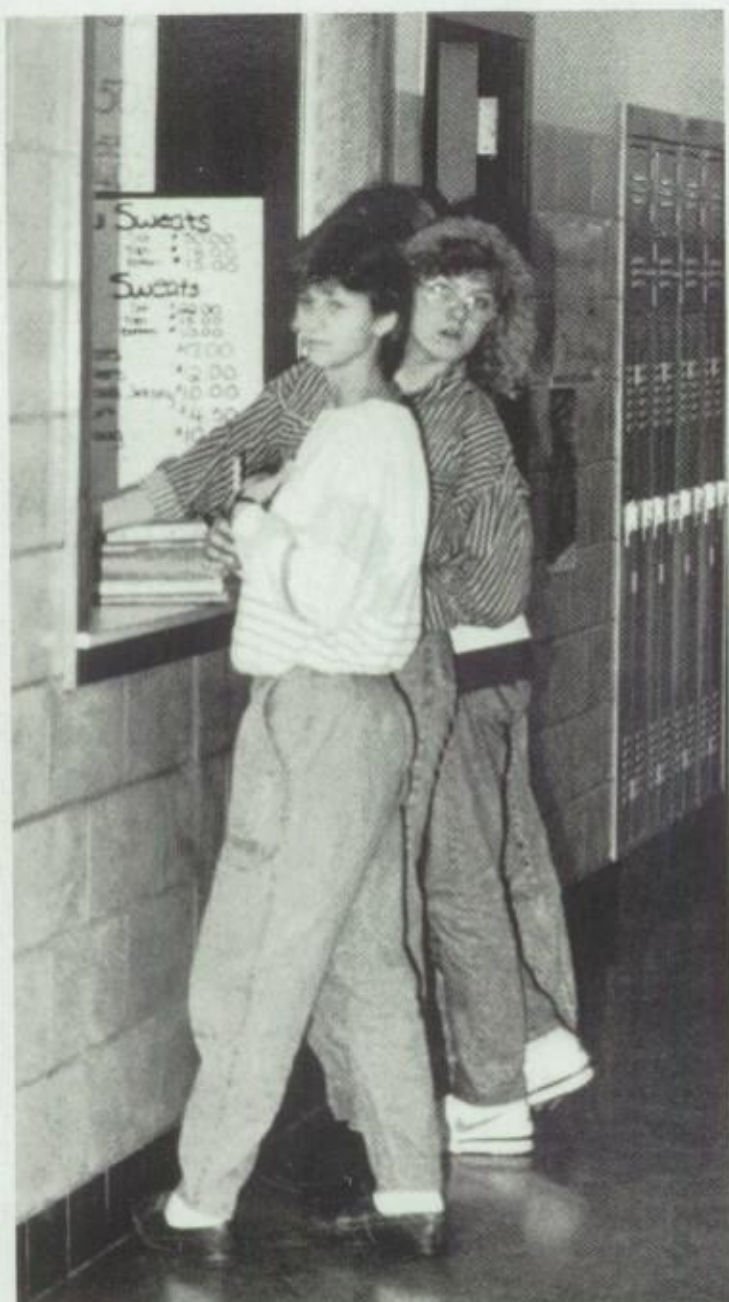

Looking over our past years we have memories of laughter, of tears, of friends, of hardships, and of challenges to be remembered, to be cherished, or to be forgotten. It is now time for us to move forward, to make our own decisions. There will be nobody to hold our hands, to tell us what to do. Many of us will go on to colleges, business schools, past jobs, or future jobs. Only we can choose our paths. Indeed it is a scary world with people of experience, knowledge, and education. It will be with these people that we will challenge for our mark of advancement. But with the skills that have come from our Annville-Cleona teachers, we can take what has been taught to us and apply it to our lives. So it is with great pride, great admiration, and great respect that we thank those who have taught us well.

Our Thanks to the Teachers

The junior class spent much of the year planning for the junior-senior prom which Mr. Troxell, the class advisor, said was the classiest prom in recent memory. The event was funded with the money earned from their numerous fund raisers such as the sale of holiday gifts and keychains. The class kept busy with PSAT's, SAT's, college visits, as well as other school-related activities. The class officers Ceci Huey, President; Vice President, Russ Becher; Suann Snavelly, Secretary; and Dave Jones, Treasurer, are looking forward to the exciting year ahead.

The sophomore class, led by President, Nhiem Nguyen; Vice President, Brian Graybill; Secretary, Nicole Fortna; Treasurer, Todd Hearsey; and Advisor, Mrs. Rhoads, accomplished many goals this year. The sophomore class sold posters, cups, and other paraphernalia in the autumn and held a chicken Bar-b-que at Zayre's parking lot in the spring. It was also the year they received class rings, a memory of their high school days to last forever. All was in preparation of their upcoming prom and graduation.

Impressive Record

The A-C Dutchmen football team headed by first year coach Terry Lehman finished the season with an impressive league record of 6-1. "The guys came up one win short," stated Coach Lehman. He was referring to the big section showdown with Donegal. Losing this game, the Dutchmen were denied the section crown. Yet there were many satisfying victories, including the ones against arch-rivals, Lebanon Catholic and Northern Lebanon. Since this season was Mr. Lehman's first as head coach, he commented that "My first group of kids will always be remembered, but I'm anxious to get on with the next group." Coach Lehman was assisted by Fred Goudy, Todd Meyers, Roy Christ, Robert Ulrich, and Mike Capriotti.

Floops and Scoops

The 1987-88 Senior High Varsity Field Hockey team, which was coached by Mrs. Mary Gettle, finished the season with an overall record of 1 win, 10 losses, and 3 ties. Off to a slow start, the Dutchgals gradually improved to put forth a fine team effort against neighboring Cedar Crest, narrowly losing in overtime by a 2-1 margin. Lead by co-captains, Barb Arnold and Holly Bryce, the Dutchgals were determined to achieve victory but unfortunately fell short of that goal. They were unable to overcome tie game situations and promote victories for A-C. Scorers for the team were seniors, Holly Bryce and Amy Daugherty, and junior, Suann Snavelly. The JV team, which was coached by Mrs. Jane Ebling, ended the season with an overall record of 4-5-4. Mrs. Ebling stated that the JV team was a hard — working team demonstrating tremendous promise for future years.

Not Just Running

The 1987 boys' cross country team maintained the winning tradition of coach George Gerber by finishing second in the league, capturing third in the All-league meet at Elizabethtown, and placing fifth at Districts in Hershey. When asked about the team, Scott Brinser, who served as the team's leader and qualified for state competition, said "We had a good time, worked hard, and tried to get to the top."

Rounding out the top runners were seniors co-captain Mark Englehart, Greg Harnish, and Matt Beare; junior Russ Bucher; sophomores Brian Brinser, Scott Bradley, Rich Hoffman; and freshman Josh Billings.

Despite suffering many injuries throughout the season, the team finished with a 19-1 record, losing only to league champion Manheim Central by a few points. "Give credit to us, we put in our time and mileage," said Gerber by the season's end.

Mark Englehart pushes it to the limit in order to stay ahead of the pack at Elizabethtown college.

Another day, another fun practice; Jon Rhoads looks over the course.

Girls' Cross Country

The Annville-Cleona girls' cross country team put forth a fine effort during the 1987-88 season despite the forfeited losses caused by injuries on the team. The Dutchgals ended their season with a league record of 6 wins and 14 losses. Their toughest opponents during the season were Solanco, Manheim Township, and Elizabethtown.

In the All-league meet held at Elizabethtown College, Merren Armour placed first for A-C with a time of 22:23, Becky Hitz finished second with a time of 24:02, and Dawn Hawryluk finished third for A-C with a time of 24:10.

The Dutchgals finished in twenty-third place in a field of 60 schools during district competition held at Founders Hall in Hershey. A-C's top runner was Jill Bradley, placing fortieth out of approximately 200 runners, with a time of 22:12. The girls trained every day during the week and also on Saturday. When asked about cross country, Merren Armour replied, "One of the positive aspects of cross country is that it makes running the mile and a half easier to stomach."

"Our season would have been better if it weren't for the injuries which resulted in forfeits. For the small number we had this year, the girls did a good job," was Miss Boyer's overall comment about the girls' cross country season.

A Competitive Season

The soccer team had enthusiasm as well as fun in a season filled with ups and downs. Overcoming a frustrating season, the team fought to improve upon last years record but finished at a disappointing 4-7-1. The team was headed by its three senior tri-captains Doug Gibson, Will Lasky, and Rob Snyder. "We were in every game, but just could not pull them out," said

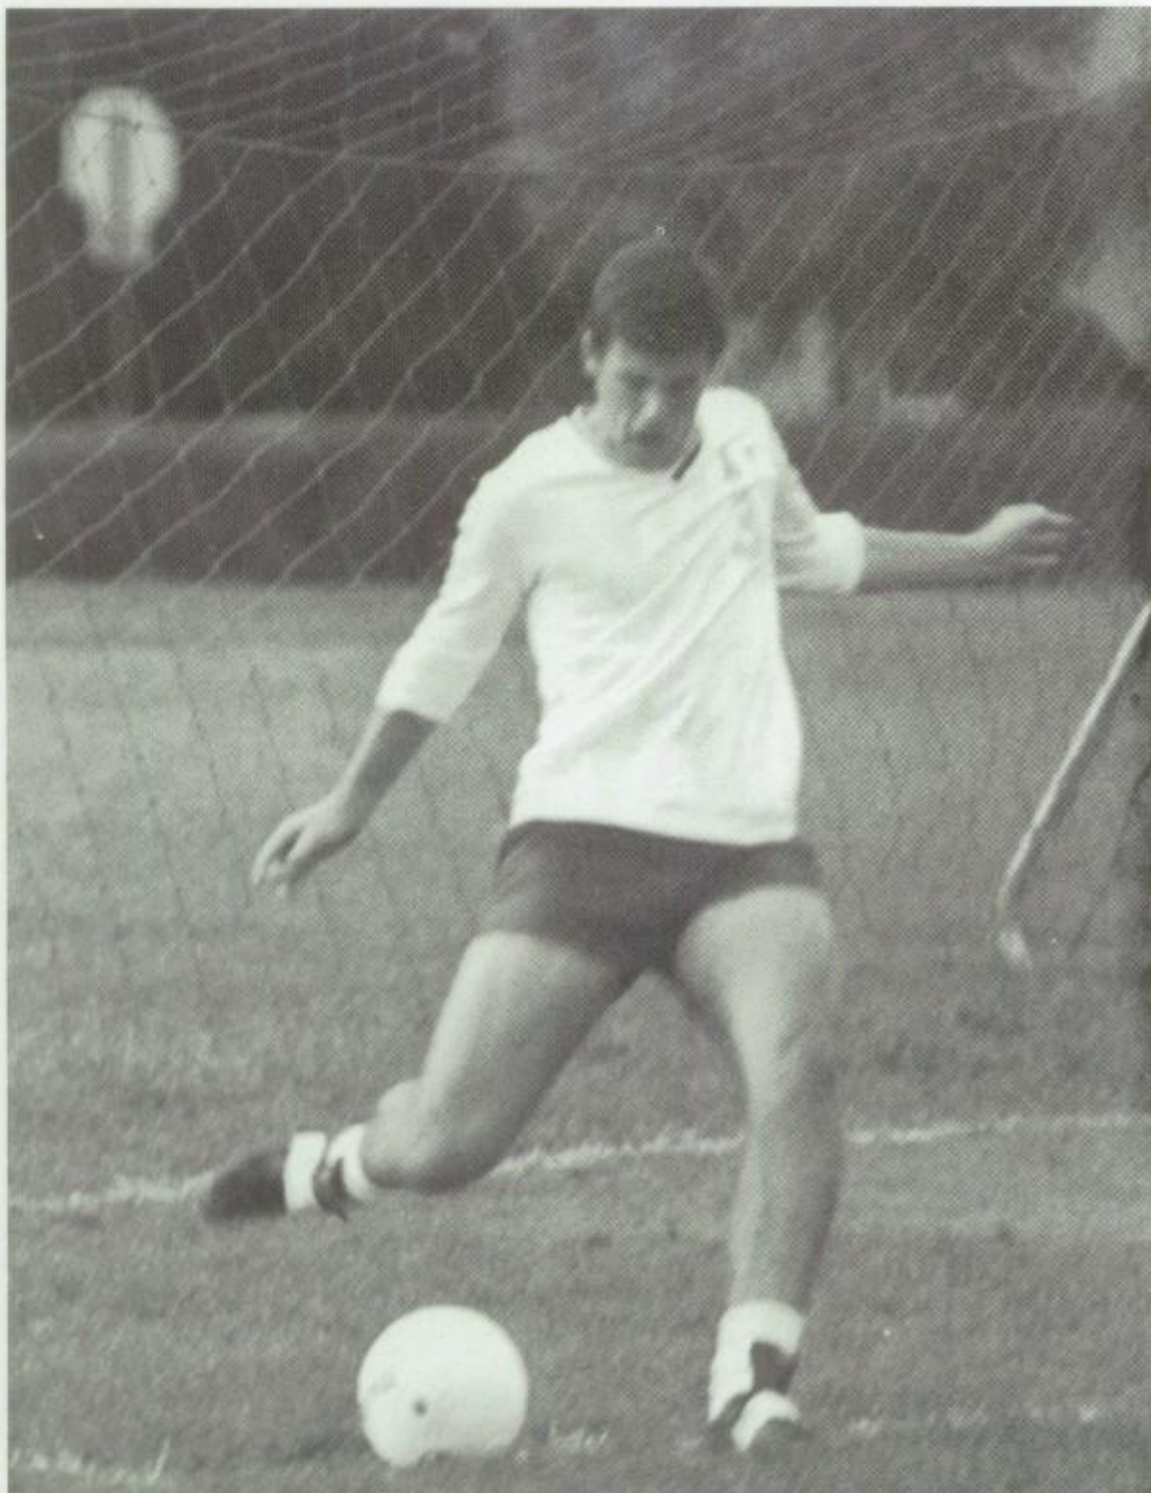

Doug Gibson.

The highlight of the season was a 4-3 victory over Manheim Central. It was the final home game for a senior oriented team. These seniors were Doug Gibson, Will Lasky, Rob Snyder, Kris Gacona, Ken Brown, Craig Graby, Dan Stoddard, Matt Peiffer, Tony Asper, Kyota Kawabe, Marcus Wende, and Mike Hamblin.

Will Lasky was selected to the section all-star team two of his three seasons and honorable mention his sophomore year. Doug Gibson, Rob Snyder, and Matt Peiffer started each of their three seasons. Peiffer had an excellent year finishing three points behind Will in scoring. Gibson lead the team in assists with five, Snyder directed traffic on defense, and Gacona held down the goal.

Although the lack of proper equipment such as tennis courts and uniforms made the season difficult, the girls of the 1987-88 tennis team enjoyed the challenge of improving their game and the chance to work together as a team. Through the days of practice the team's seasoned and rookie players trained with coach Bernie Bell to improve their skills. This effort enabled the girls to win individual games and sets though failing to win an entire match. Yet during these disappointing times, the team members supported and encouraged one another changing the lost matches into winning memories.

This year's Boys' Basketball team did a little of everything in its quest of becoming the first team from Annville Cleona to win a PIAA state basketball game. Ron Grier and Mike Folmer supplied the muscle to a strong rebounding game. Will Lasky had an outstanding year both offensively and defensively. Kevin Schrader, an inspirational leader, ran the show on offense and won the best defensive player award. Rob Snyder played his role of concentrating on rebounding. Doug Gibson and Troy Mark, the three point marksmen, supplied needed offensive power. And finally rounding out the supporting cast, the bench played an instrumental role in cheering the team on until the very end.

Ending the regular season at a 21-2 mark 14-0 in the section, the team won a first ever section championship at Annville Cleona. The Little Dutchmen entered districts ranked first and received a bye in the opening round. In the second round the Dutchmen faced a scrappy Wyomissing team. Trailing by fourteen points in the fourth quarter, the Dutchmen staged a gutsy comeback to clinch a state playoff berth and enter the district finals.

In districts the team battled a much larger Eastern York team. Although the mighty Dutchmen had the lead after three grueling quarters, the more powerful Eastern York team outlasted the Dutchmen. On this down note the team traveled to the farm show arena to host the Squires of Delone. Once again the Dutchmen held an early lead only to be defeated in the second half and finish fourth in Districts.

Entering states at a mere fourth place the Dutchmen's chances seemed glum. They had to travel two long hours up north to a little gym named "doughlin." There the Dutchmen faced a heavily favored GAR Wilkes Barre team which had won its district. This was a true test for the Dutchmen. Once again the Dutchmen held a first half lead only to let it dwindle away to a six point deficit late in the fourth quarter 70 to 64. The Dutchmen gave it everything they had and after a pair of three pointers, some foul shots, and intense defense, the score miraculously read AC 77 GAR 72. After the game, the players were mobbed by a bunch of loyal fans in what was one of the most emotional times of the year. Annville Cleona had won its first PIAA state basketball game in the school's history.

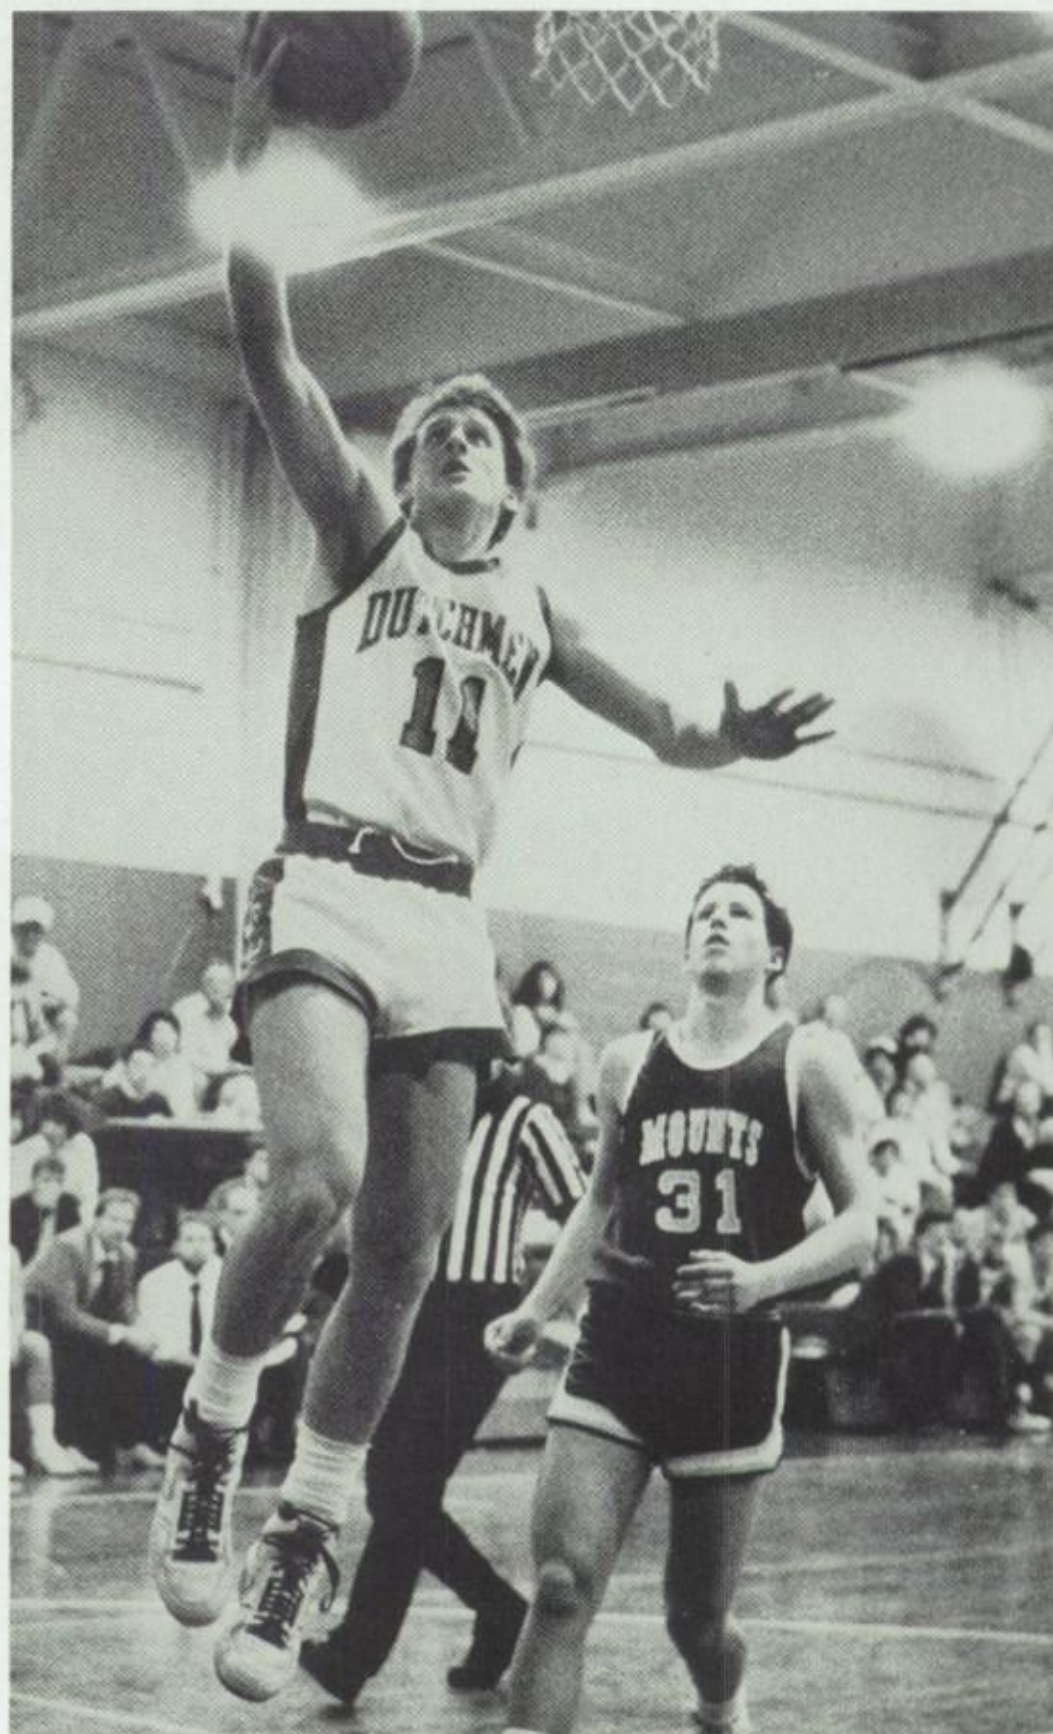

Round two of states took the little Dutchmen up to the coal regions of Shamokin where they took on Loyolasock, a second place district finisher. The mighty Dutchmen never looked back in this game demolishing Loyolasock 86 to 69. This win earned AC a spot in the PIAA Eastern Semifinals. There they faced a familiar foe, Eastern York. In what seemed to be a carbon copy of the previous encounter, the Dutchmen outplayed Eastern in the first half only to be ousted in the second half. The team finished the season with the record-setting mark of 24-6. Congratulations team on a fantastic season!

Girls' Basketball

The A-C girls' basketball team consisted of seniors, Merren Armour, Lisa Bachman, Kori Powell, and Barb Arnold; juniors, Paula Light, Suann Snavely, Jodi Funck, Kelly Bachman, and Kim Parker; sophomores, Angie Fees and Gina Krall. The girls pulled off a 22-7 overall record, and Mr. Barnhart felt it was "The best year the girls' program has ever had even though their record was the same as last year." The reason for this is that the team featured an undefeated league record of 14-0, a twenty game winning streak, and a birth in state tournament play. Merren Armour and Paula Light made the Lebanon All-County team and Merren also made District III all tournament team and was voted best player in Section III. Highlighting the year was Paula's scoring her 1,000 points her junior year, which made her only the second girl player to score 1,000 points her junior year. With 548 points Merren led the team in scoring and broke the girls' scoring record shooting 56% from the field.

Cheerleaders

In early May over twenty girls competed for fourteen slots on the cheerleading squad, which had evolved from one varsity squad and one junior varsity squad. The advisors, Lisa Patton and Darla Belnick, assisted the captains, Kim Gingrich, Jen Whary (varsity), and Lesa Taylor (junior varsity) through a memorable year. The new varsity squad, which started practice at the end of May, practiced twice a week throughout the summer. As the new school year drew closer the squad put much effort in the pep rally and upcoming competitions. Showing their spirit, the junior varsity and varsity squads sponsored an exhilarating fall pep rally, which included much crowd participation. Topping the fall pep rally, the cheerleaders sparked their spirit at the winter pep rally. The cheerleaders participated in an exhibition at the Lebanon Plaza mall, and performed in a competition sponsored by the A-C Sports Boosters Club, and did well in each. When asked how she enjoyed her first year of varsity cheerleading, Jodi Plummer said, "I enjoyed cheering even though when things got rough, we pulled together as a squad." Jen Whary summed up the year with, "The cheerleaders were very hard-working and cooperative this year. Even though there were some injuries and changes had to be made, we worked together as a team."

Batter Up, Play Ball!

The A-C Varsity baseball team experienced an unusual losing season. The team lost many one or two run games in the beginning and the middle of the season but came back to win the last 5 out of 6 games. The team also experienced a surprising 10-0 victory over Section Champ Lebanon. Gavin Osteen threw a no-hitter and a hit a grand slam in the victory. The team qualified for districts and won its first round game against Upper Dauphin before bowing out to Camp Hill. The team was led by Todd Bowser and Gavin Osteen and coached by Mr. Capriotti.

“Psyched”

The girls' varsity softball team, coached by Mrs. Jane Ebling, ended their season with an overall record of seven and eleven and they placed fourth in the league. The tri-captains of the team were Judi Dietz, Wendy Smith and Tammy Rivera.

Despite the fact that the team consisted of experienced players, the team was unable to produce a winning season. Although the season was not as successful as the team had anticipated, the Dutchgirls did capture the championship title of the annual Palmyra Tournament. Soundly defeating Central Dauphin East during the first game of the tournament, the Dutchgirls were psyched to face next their opponent, East Pennsboro. In a close, hard-fought battle, the team managed to defeat the Panthers 4-3. Under the future leadership of several returning juniors next year, the team hopes to finish stronger in next year's season.

Race To The Top

Even though the boys' track lacked members, it was still a formidable opponent. The team practiced six times a week to obtain the success they desired. The captains were Mike Dodson, leading the team in points, Chance Kersey, throwing the shot and discus, and Scott Brinser, pacing the distance runners. Matt Peiffer entered District competition and was the only A-C athlete qualified for states after being injured for most of the regular season. The most impressive meet of the season was the Lebanon County meet. The 1600 meter relay team of Doug Weeks, Brian Brinser, Mike Whitmer, and John Leisey placed third, and setting a new record, Mike Dodson, who was named Outstanding Athlete won in 110 meter hurdles. Rick Tice, Steve Gerhart, and Ed Felty coached the team.

The Band Steps Up

When the 1987 marching band season opened, the band had moved from group two, in which it had been for years, to a larger group, group three. To prepare for the new season and new level of competition, A-C marchers participated in band camp. As usual band camp took place during the hottest week of August, but the band's hard-working members made it. In fact they finished their season at chapter championships in Maryland with the highest score A-C has ever seen. After the marching season, the concert band and wind ensemble became priority. The bands performed in winter and spring concerts and were judged in a competition at Lebanon Valley College where they both received the "excellent" rating.

Choristers

Mr. Shade commented on a very successful year for the AC chorus. Some special highlights were the Christmas concert, in which the chorale had the opportunity to perform with an orchestra, and the spring concert, where the 11 and 12 grade chorus sang selections mostly from Broadway musicals and also a dedication for Mrs. Deibus. In addition to those special events, Todd Bowser, Mike Ketner, Dave Fair and Atherton Carty represented Annville-Cleona at District Chorus. Also, Todd Bowser marked the first male from AC to participate in the All-State Chorus. Many long hours and hard work were poured into the very successful year for the Annville-Cleona Chorus.

Students Serving Students

During the school year working both behind the scenes and in the spotlight, the 1987-88 Student Council performed a variety of activities for the student body. Not only were the members responsible for annual events as Homecoming, the carnation sale, and the Easter egg sale but also Slave

Day and Family Feud. The Student Council, responsible for the student store and the soda machine, used their funds to present a school wide motivational media assembly "Bridges." Under advisor Mr. Martian and president Becky Wentling this year's student council proved to have a successful year and a end of the year trip. Other officers were Ceci Huey, Vice President; Suann Snavelly, Treasurer; Todd Hearsey, Assistant Treasurer; Cathy Eisenhower, Secretary; and Nhien Nguyen, Assistant Secretary.

Little Dutchmen FFA

"I believe in the future of farming, with a faith born not of words but of deeds . . ." So states the national FFA creed. The Little Dutchmen FFA proves their faith in agriculture by their actions and accomplishments. Such actions and accomplishments included the yearly citrus and bologna sale. This past summer the FFA also sold ice cream at the Lebanon Area Fair and in spring held a donkey-basketball game. Members competed proudly in speaking contests, and many went to the state level. Members also competed in judging contests and the showing of livestock at various levels of competition. This spring FFA members held a petting zoo for the elementary schools which provided an opportunity for the children to learn about animals and where food comes from. Each year the FFA's in Lebanon county hold a basketball and a volleyball tournament. This year the Little Dutchmen basketball team place first. Scott Brinser, Eric Harnish, and Sheila Hostetter won their Keystone Farmer Degrees in January. To win this award each person had to invest $1000.00 in his or her project. This is the second highest award one can earn.

FBLA

FBLA is the largest national club of high school students. The Annville-Cleona chapter for 1987-88 consisted of 15 members. The officers were President, Julie Bucks; Vice-President, Judi Dietz; Secretary, Jen Whary; and Treasurer, Nicole Donmoyer. At the Spring Regional Competition, of 12 members that competed, 10 placed. Seven went on to compete at the State Leadership Conference.

Learning Beyond

Vo-tech allows students the opportunity to acquire skills and knowledge of various trades. This is acquired through training which includes basic theory and hands on training. It prepares students for workmanship and leadership for today's growing industry. After completion of their training they're prepared to take full responsibility of holding various trade positions.

Vo-tech also offers co-op and various clubs for each student. Co-op is permitted to a student who has acquired all necessary skills and is now capable of taking a job. He then is permitted to work a few hours while school is in session. Clubs consist of VICA, DECA, HOSA, and FFA. Through these clubs students realize the seriousness of their trade and strive to show leadership and workmanship. They also strive to put their trade into use by getting involved in work forces in various areas of industry.

Student Helpers

Only two students took advantage of the office secretarial program which was designed by the business department years ago. Not only is the school helped by the work of these students, but also the students are gaining in office experience. Typing correspondence, filing papers, mailing letters, answering telephones, and making copies of many different types of letters are a few of the many duties that office aides do. When students needed help in the library and the librarians were busy, the students asked a library assistant for help. Mrs. Kapp, advisor, along with the library aides, taught the members the basics of being library assistants. These students helped in the library on a period-by-period basis, depending on when they were scheduled. Their assignments included helping at the desk, filing catalog cards, writing overdues, and helping students.

Mats and Mats, Together

As in the past the mat maids have helped with another season of successful wrestling. This year the gals have maintained a profitable concession stand, organized the Dutchmen Holiday Tournament, sold passes to raise funds to raise the necessary funds for the tourney. They also kept time for the bouts and distributed scoring sheets to the coaches. New members were assisted by the old members, who taught the tricks of the trade. The club was led by their president Bobbie Jo Adams and her assistant Angie Giansanti.

The intellectuals and the wizards of the school were at it again in 87-88 as the math team took part in a variety of competitions. The most noticeable triumph was their third place finish in the state in the Annual High School competition. They were John "Jay" Smith, Greg Harnish, and Ted Laslo. The team participated in the Pennsylvania Mathematics League, the Continental Mathematics League, and the Atlantic Pacific League during school hours. Each of these quizzes consisted of six challenging questions and was taken on a monthly basis. Mr. Martin acted as the club's advisor.

Teens Helping Teens

"Teens helping teens," was a theme adopted for the teen contact program by the Lebanon Family Health Services. Teen Contact is an organization open to students in grades 10-12 who make themselves available to other students to talk about problems concerning school or other trouble areas. Teen Contacts also have information on referral sources, for students with more serious problems. Examples of referral sources are Crisis Intervention and Rape Crisis. In order to be qualified for such activities Teen Contacts underwent more than twenty hours of training during the summer.

This year's teen Contacts consisted of 19 boys and girls in grades 11 and 12. They had several fund raisers including a dance and a car wash in order to raise money to go on a trip to Washington, D.C. and to add to their fund.

There was also a program in which ninth graders had the opportunity to be involved in training sessions. This program was available for students who plan to be Teen Contacts as juniors and seniors.

SADD, the student organization, which endorses a do not drive if you have been drinking policy this year, tried to alert the student body of the dangers of drinking and driving. SADD members, advised by Mr. Troxell, sponsored an assembly program to involve the student body, on April 27 with an excellent speaker, Jack Chambers. His personal concern and person to person manner of speaking managed to hold the attention of the entire auditorium even after the class bell had rung. In addition to the assembly program,

SADD members had a special "Ghost out" day to alert their fellow students about the problems of drinking and driving. During Ghost out day, the students who volunteered had their faces colored white to symbolize the deaths which occur every twenty-three minutes as a result of drunken driving. Ghost out day, which was intended to make people realize how many people do die and how our lives would be affected, ended with a mock funeral with all the "dead people" parading in Lebanon to the "funeral" site and afterwards going to a dance at the Lebanon Catholic H.S. held for all students of the county schools which were involved. Besides the Ghost out Day and the assembly program, the SADD group also prompted the placement of posters and a showcase which depicted the horrors of an automobile accident in which alcohol was the cause. This year's officers were as follows: President Shawn Safford; Vice President Becky Wentling; Treasurer Heather Emrich; Secretary Jan Krebs.

French Club

The 1987-88 school term ended a successful year for the French club. Led by advisor, Mrs. Kathy Eschenfelder, the club took on many activities beginning with the annual Christmas caroling. Among the many songs that were sung were "Viv Le Vent" and "Jeanette Isabella." The members also enjoyed an open discussion with the exchange students, Merren Armour, Markus Wende, and Kyota Kawabe. These students shared the traditions of their countries and discussed the differences between our country and theirs. The club also had a bake and crepe sale to fund its final project of the year, the French dinner. The club met in Lebanon at the Connoisseur Connection and enjoyed a French dinner which consisted of several courses. Escargot, quiche, french onion soup and a salad were a few of the many entrees which started the evening and concluded with filet mignon and a sherbert dessert. The club was led by Shawn Safford, president; Nhien Nguyen, vice-president; Nancy Huber, secretary; and Jennie Yeagley, treasurer.

Behind every good production lie the members of a hard working stage crew. By working long tedious hours on designing, planning, constructing, and painting stage sets, the stage crew gave the finishing touches to the productions Meet Me in St. Louis and Sugar. Their time and effort applied to the sets allowed for the audience to view the productions with a sense of realism.

Action!

The AV department is under the direction of Mr. Pyles. They provide audio visual equipment to teachers and students. They do the video taping and edition for tapes that are used in the curriculum. The staff laminates, duplicates audio and visual tapes, and makes transparencies. Some of the staff help set up the lighting and sound equipment for assemblies, concerts, and special programs, and the monthly public meeting. Assisting Mr. Pyles in repairing and servicing the equipment is Mr. Day. The AV staff has worked hard to meet these responsibilities.

Going Beyond

The leader corps sponsored the first annual volleyball championship game held in front of the student body this year. "Demolition" comprised of Will Lasky, Rob Snyder, Mike Folmer, Ron Grier, Kris Gacona, and Andy Dumbald defeated "Ultimate Sensation II" whose members included Guy Leuschner, Ruel Reigel, Doug Gibson, Todd Bowser, Matt Peiffer, Wayne Bates. In the girls division the "Puds" captured the championship. It's team members are Lisa Bachman, Merren Armor, Suann Snavelly, Kori Powell, Paula Light, and Jodi Funk. Leader Corps members also worked during their study halls to help Mr. Batchelor and Mrs. Ebling with gym class.

Varsity Club is an organization for students who have received a varsity letter in a Sr. High sport.

This year the Varsity Club sponsored a breakfast in appreciation for those people who helped with the sports program throughout the year. They also held a "Tropics Night" dance after the Tulpehocken Boys' basketball game. Officers for the 1987-88 school year included Will Lasky, President; Doug Gibson, Vice President; Barb Arnold, Treasurer.

Model UN

As world tensions mounted in February, the Model United Nations delegates met at Penn State Capital Campus to promote world understanding. The Denmark delegates were Shawn Safford, Phil Snavelly, and Karri Summers. Mark Mayer, Mike Rogers, and Heather Young represented Granada. Representing Uganda were Ken Brown, Mike Stanilla, and Jay Smith. Doug Weeks, Rob Snyder, and Harry Zeiders represented Yugoslavia. The delegates debated issues from Chernobyl to Aids. The delegates experienced the grief and disgust that the real UN delegates feel in trying to pass resolutions.

Quiz Bowl

On March 14 at Lebanon Valley College, the A-C Quiz Bowl team captured its highest finish ever, tenth place, in the first round. The team was defeated in the second round by an impressive Fleetwood squad. The team was led by Captain Jay Smith and fellow seniors, Ken Brown and Rob Snyder while underclassmen, Harry Zeiders, Abe Krebs, Mark Mayer, and Karri Summers filled out the remainder of the team. Practices began in December with Mr. Bell, coach, Mrs. Campbell, and Mr. Bugden quizzing the team.

Special Club

Annville-Cleona students presented a very entertaining production of Meet Me in St. Louis on November 20-21. After nights of practice and memorization, the cast members felt varied emotions on opening night. A nervous Megan Hart stated, "I knew some of the people from last years' play, but I got to know them in a special way. The play is like your own special club that is exclusive because you share things no one else does." Chris Hynum, pumped with energy, joked with cast members. Becky Wentling and Jen Krebs teased each other about their make-up. Through all this joking the actors knew it was curtain time, a time for seriousness. Mr. Stocker, the director, said, "They have worked very hard, but from this point on , it is out of my hands."

Future Homemakers

Joggers

The Future Homemakers of America Club is dedicated to promoting aspects of homemaking skills and related activities such as crafts, fund raisers, service projects, and exploration of careers in this field. A-C's FHA sold candy to fund a parent-student dinner at the Hotel Hershey. Usually this dinner was a mother-daughter affair, but this year it was opened to all parents, and Dads were there, also. The club members made favors and decorated for the dinner. Club members also made lap robes for the area nursing homes and visited the Hershey Foods kitchens, an ambitious schedule for the year.

The 1987-88 Jogging Club, comprised of students in grades nine through twelve, was advised by Mr. Gerber. The officers were Scott Brinser, president; Jen Berkheiser, vice president; and Heather Young, secretary/treasurer. A chart was posted in Mr. Gerber's room so that jogging club members, who accumulated anywhere from two to sixty miles this past winter, could record their mileage. The club consisted mainly of athletes who wished to maintain their training from the fall through spring.

All the Honors

The Senior High National Honor Society recognized students who had achieved academically and had the qualities of character, leadership, scholarship, service, and citizenship on May 23, 1988 at the induction services.

Among the many worthwhile services provided yearly was the bird feeding committee. Students who academically excelled in a certain subject tutored those students who sought improvement in the same area. Fundraisers: ice cream sales and bake sales.

Officers of the society included Ken Brown, president; Ceci Huey, vice-president; Becky Wentling, treasurer; and Cathy Eisenhauer, secretary.

DUTCHMAN CRIER

Thanks to a dedicated staff, the Dutchman Crier was delivered to students regularly during the school year. This devoted publication staff, under the guidance of their advisor, Mrs. Douglas, put in many long hours. Roving reporters pestered you with questions like, "You know it's spring when . . ." They wrote articles and typed them during Computer Applications (Thank you, Mr. Martin) to make their deadlines, laid out copy, wrote headlines, and when the paper was finally "put to bed," everyone would sigh with relief, and someone would make the phone call.

Above and Beyond

After being chosen co-editors-in-chief, Barb Kearney and Doug Kline began planning for the 1988 yearbook. The theme, Above and Beyond, was chosen among the staff of editors.

The 1988 Corinoma staff was made up of those who not only volunteered, but also the Journalism class which was created this year. The class worked diligently tenth period and after school to uphold the tradition of producing an excellent yearbook.

The staff worked hard trying to account for all events which affected the lives of the students. The staff, along with the guidance of Mrs. Douglas, set limits and rose above and beyond them to produce the 1988 Corinoma.

Patti Bixler, jack of all trades on the yearbook, sports her trusty camera in search of subjects.

The stress of yearbook production affects Doug Gibson, Cathy Eisenhauer, Guy Leuschner, and Heather Young in different ways.

Doing It for Sugar

The 1988 musical, Sugar, found its way into the hearts of cast members and audience members alike during its three spectacular performances March 10, 11, and 12, 1988. Sugar, based on the screenplay, Some Like It Hot, by Billy Wilder and I.A.L. Diamond from a story by Robert Thoeren, was directed by Brad Stocker and choreographed by Dale Bentz.

Sugar is the story of two musicians, Joe (Fred Yeagley) and Jerry (Chris Hynum), who are in desperate need of jobs. Although Joe sees no problem with joining an all girls' band headed for Florida, Jerry is quick to dismiss the idea of trading in his suit and tie for high heels and a dress. But after witnessing a mob "hit", they become wanted men and both agree that it would be better to be in Florida than inside a coffin. So with a few dresses, wigs, and some killer heels, Joe becomes Josephine and Jerry becomes Daphne. Along the way Joe falls in love with Sugar (Ceci Huey), a beautiful but lonely singer in the band. Joe and Jerry's charade gets them in more trouble than they can handle, resulting in a hilarious story of mistaken identity and a series of faster than lightning quick-changes.

Other leading cast members included Frank Heilman, Mike Dodson, Nicole Fortna, Daryl Morris, Ted Laslo, Jay Smith, and Becky Wentling. Appreciation goes to Brad Stocker on his last endeavor as director of the A-C musicals. After the final curtain had fallen, the cast knew that "doin' it for Sugar" was worth every second of effort put into making a great show.

Bottom right: In the middle of a quick change from Joe to Josephine, Fred Yeagley models the latest in fashion for men and women.

Below: After a successful Saturday performance, Nicole Fortna, Tina Howard, and Lesa Taylor finally get to relieve their tension.

Right: Mike Dodson proves that not all gangsters are heartless as he gladly feeds his niece, Amanda.

“Sugar was the funniest and most entertaining musical A-C has seen in years.”

— Doug Kline

Left: Looking like a model out of a J C Penney catalogue, Chris Hynum takes on the role of Daphne, who considers herself “a nymph.”

Time of Our Lives

The hard work and efforts of the junior class made the 1988 junior-senior prom very enjoyable. The prom was held May 7, 1988, at the Lebanon Country Club. The festivities began with the dinner at 6:30 p.m. at which the choices of chicken or fish were offered. The theme for this year's prom was "I've Had the Time of My Life" from the Dirty Dancing soundtrack. The entertainment for the evening's music was performed by the band, Third Stream. This year's prom colors were pink and wine. The king and queen of the prom were Douglas Gibson and Nicole Donmoyer.

Prom goers enjoy the "Time of their Lives'."

Rockin' in the Fifties

Everyone was "Rockin' the fifties" on May 8 at the post prom which parents and community members organized at the Lebanon YMCA. To support this theme some students dressed in fifties style clothing. The disc jockey played only music from this time period.

The students had a great time playing volleyball, basketball, ping pong, and walleyball. Even though the night passed away quickly, everyone will remember the occasion by the t-shirts and prizes that they received. Mike Dodson will especially remember the post prom party because he won the car that was given away.

Keeping the Faith?

Upheavals in the church did not end with 1987 and Jim Bakker. Former Jim Bakker critic, Jimmy Swaggart, was caught wallowing in his own sin when a vengeful employee revealed Swaggart's involvement with a prostitute. While Swaggart claimed to have been a victim of the temptations of pornography, he assured the press that he engaged in no sexual activity. The prostitute said differently. No matter the extent of the sin, it left many followers shattered and weeping in their pews. The whole scandal came to a head when Swaggart tearfully confessed his sin on his national television show. Although defrocked by the Assemblies of God after breaking his suspension, he quickly resumed his place behind the pulpit at a small church in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. The sermon wasn't on TV.*

"To grasp and hold a vision, to fix it in your senses, that is the very essence, I believe, of successful leadership." — President Reagan to Soviet artists during his visit to Moscow, 1988.

Star-gazing With the Reagans

In the interests of world peace, the Reagans and the Gorbachevs met first in America and then the Soviet Union. While little came of the summits, the gentlemen have built a close friendship. The cold war may have ended between the Superpowers, but the battle of icy stares has just begun between first ladies Nancy and Raisa.

And speaking of Nancy, she became the main target of interest in Donald Reagan's book that ripped wide the secrets of the White House and the Reagans. In the book, Nancy is said to plan the President's schedules by the stars. No, not Michael J. Fox and Eddie Murphy, but astrology. Mrs. Reagan's credibility as a respectable person and as an American leader went down the tubes.

If Mrs. Reagan could really tell the future through astrology, one of the first questions one would ask would concern the 1988 presidential race. The sooner the results are revealed, the better. With two of the most boring candidates to ever run, Mike Dukakis and George Bush, an end to the bantering rhetoric would be a welcome change. The only interesting candidate with a definitive personality, Jesse Jackson, doesn't have a chance at the top spot because of the many bigoted voters in our wonderful nation. All he can do is try for the vice president slot next to Dukakis. We cannot even guess next November's results.*

Dog Days at ACHS

Spuds McKenzie, that party animal, was all the rage in 1988. As spokesman ... er, spokespers ... uh, spokesdog (?) for Bud Lite beer, he appeared on mugs, beach towels, posters, and t-shirts. Spuds t-shirts became a big issue at Cedar Crest High School and were consequently banned because of their promotion of alcohol use. The controversy spilled over into other schools, including Annville-Cleona.*

AIDS Aware- ness

As the AIDS epidemic spread to even greater proportions, the Surgeon General released information on the incurable disease through the mail, television, and school systems across the nation. Elementary school-aged children were taught the basics of AIDS. Lessons on AIDS became required learning for junior and senior high school students starting in 1988. A more common awareness of what AIDS is will hopefully lessen the fear and confusion felt by many.*

News '87-'88

"Who's Bad?" and What's Good '87-'88

Michael Jackson re-turned to the public forefront with the release of his new album "Bad." Rumors of his plastic surgery resurfaced and were explained away along with quickly dismissed rumors of homosexuality. Nevertheless, despite distorted media coverage, his album has sold incredibly well, as expected, but not as well as "Thriller." Give him a year or two.

After heated controversy and a decisive courtroom battle, Mary Beth Whitehead, surrogate mother of "Baby M," was granted visitation rights. As a result, the future of surrogate mothering was questioned legally.

A West German teenager buzzed the Kremlin in a small Cessna plane and landed in Moscow's Red Square. He said that he was just trying to be friendly. Characteristically, the Soviet police were not amused.

Marine Lt. Col. Oliver North and Adm. John Poindexter were instrumental in the Iranian arms sales and the diversion of funds to the Contras. North commented that he thought the whole scam was "a neat idea" while Poindexter couldn't recall a thing that happened.

The Constitution celebrated its 200th birthday last September '87 with a tribute on the mall in Washington,

The stock market crashed on October 19, 1987, leaving many people financially devastated. But no depression was to follow. Instead, the market recovered and is healthier than ever ... for now.

Eighteen-month-old Jessica McClure kept America on the edge of its seat for 58½ hours after the little girl had fallen in a 22 foot deep well. Bloody and battered but alive, Jessica was lifted safely from the well and the nation gave a sigh of relief.

The Redskins crushed the Broncos in the Superbowl.

The Lakers beat the Pistons in the NBA championship.

For over two months a barge was forced to sail the seas looking for a place to land. Why would nobody take it in? It was a medium-sized boat with a very big smell. While countries argued over who owned the trash, the stench increased until NYC finally opened its arms but kept its nose clamped shut.

The Persian Gulf conflict escalated during the summer of 1988 when an American ship accidentally shot down an Iranian passenger plane after warning it to leave the restricted air space. Two-hundred-and-ninety civilians died.

Despite the protests of many angry Panamanians and the efforts of the U.S. Embassy in Panama, the ousting of Panamanian leader General Manuel Antonio Noriega proved to be difficult. Noriega, being very powerful and influential in Central America's drug trade, refused to step down, giving America another foreign frontline on which to keep the peace.

Pope John Paul II visited the U.S. and, during a stop in California, criticized America for its promiscuous sexual practices, especially homosexuality.

Aging no more than Dick Clark in the past couple decades, Superman, created by Jerry Siegel and Joe Shuster in 1938, turned fifty years old.

The worst drought to hit the mid-western United States in fifty years dried up riverbeds and parched valuable crops from North Dakota to Texas during the summer of 1988.

Israel celebrated its 40th birthday on April 21, 1988.

America cracked down on smokers, forbidding the nasty habit to be practiced on all short airline flights and in nearly all enclosed public places in New York.

Pennsylvania passed a law that allows authorities to suspend the drivers' licenses of minors in possession of alcohol. Even if the alcohol is not drunk by anyone, possession in one's car or home is ground for suspension.

After soundly defeating Tony Tubbs and Larry Holmes, Mike Tyson went on to defend the heavy-weight crown against Michael Spinks. After 91 seconds into the first round, Tyson K.O.'d Spinks and won the fight. *

Strike!

The football strike left Sunday afternoon couch potatoes with nothing to do but vegitate until substitute players, also known as "scabs," were given the professional football spotlight for a few short weeks, despite the protests of many striking pros.

When network TV writers went on strike, producers went to the extremes of revising and rewriting old scripts (so what else is new?). They also accepted formerly rejected, mediocre scripts so the fall season could have a fresh lineup to satisfy all of the weeknight couch potatoes who were stuck in rerun limbo. *

Everlasting Covenant

The class of '88 graduated during commencement exercises on Wednesday, June 8, 1988, at 7:30 p.m. in the Miller Chapel at Lebanon Valley College. After the processional, the Reverend John Abernathy Smith gave the invocation and Jim Plummer, senior class president, delivered the welcome address. The chorale and senior chorus members sang "Every Valley," "Somewhere Out There," and "Seeds Grow to Plants." Kathy Young, third ranking member of the class, gave the scripture, followed by Lisa Young, salutatorian, and John Smith, valedictorian, delivering their commencement speeches on the program's theme, "Everlasting Covenant." After Dr. Carole Spahr, superintendent, spoke to graduates and those in attendance, Mr. Glenn Worcester, principal, made the presentation of the class. Commencement ended with the changing of the tassels led by Jim Plummer and the singing of the Alma Mater by the senior class led by Todd Bowser, senior class vice president.

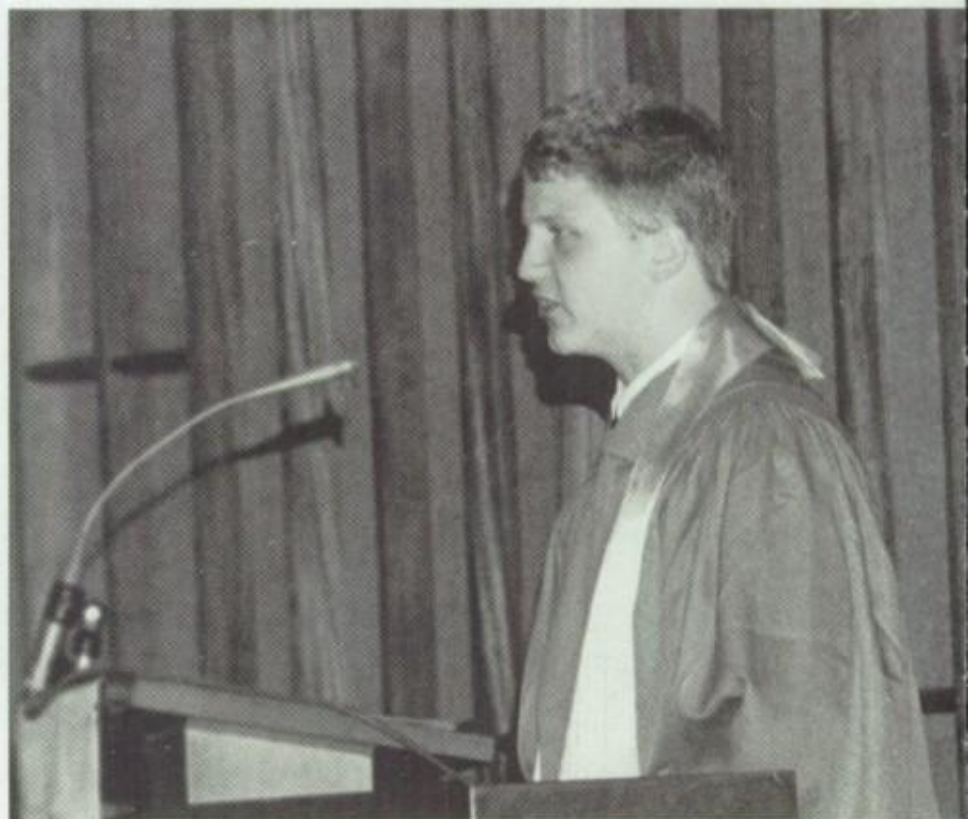

Anxiously waiting to graduate, Cindy Copenhaver, Amy Daugherty, and Judi Deitz gaze toward the stacks of diplomas.

Addressing the seniors, John Smith gives his valedictory speech.

Speaking about everlasting covenants, Lisa Young, salutatorian, stands tall.

Welcoming everyone to commencement, Jim Plummer looks out over the audience.

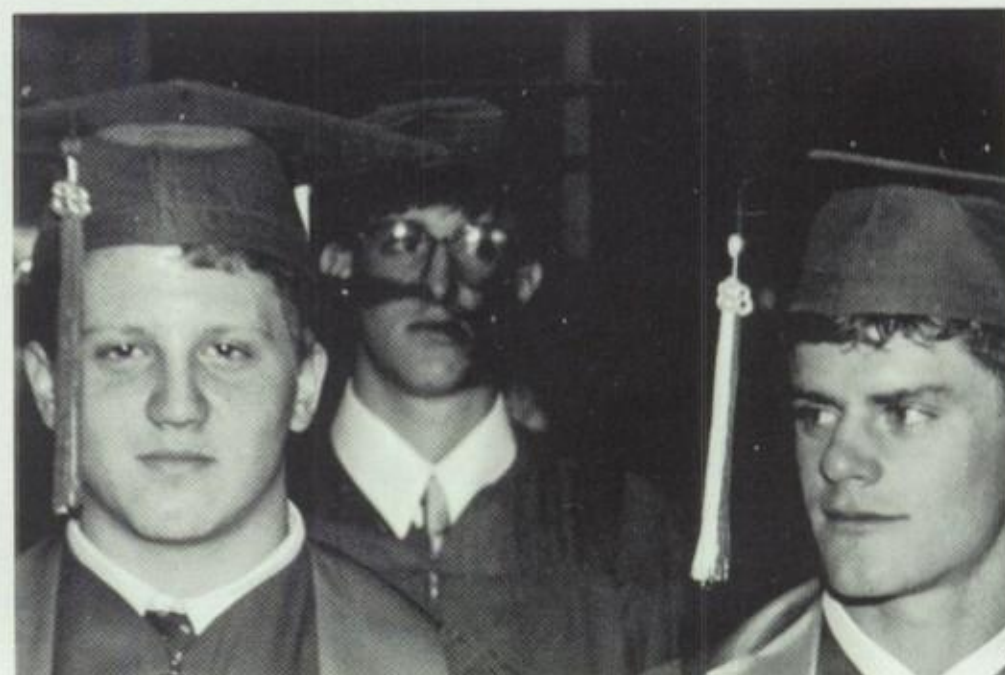

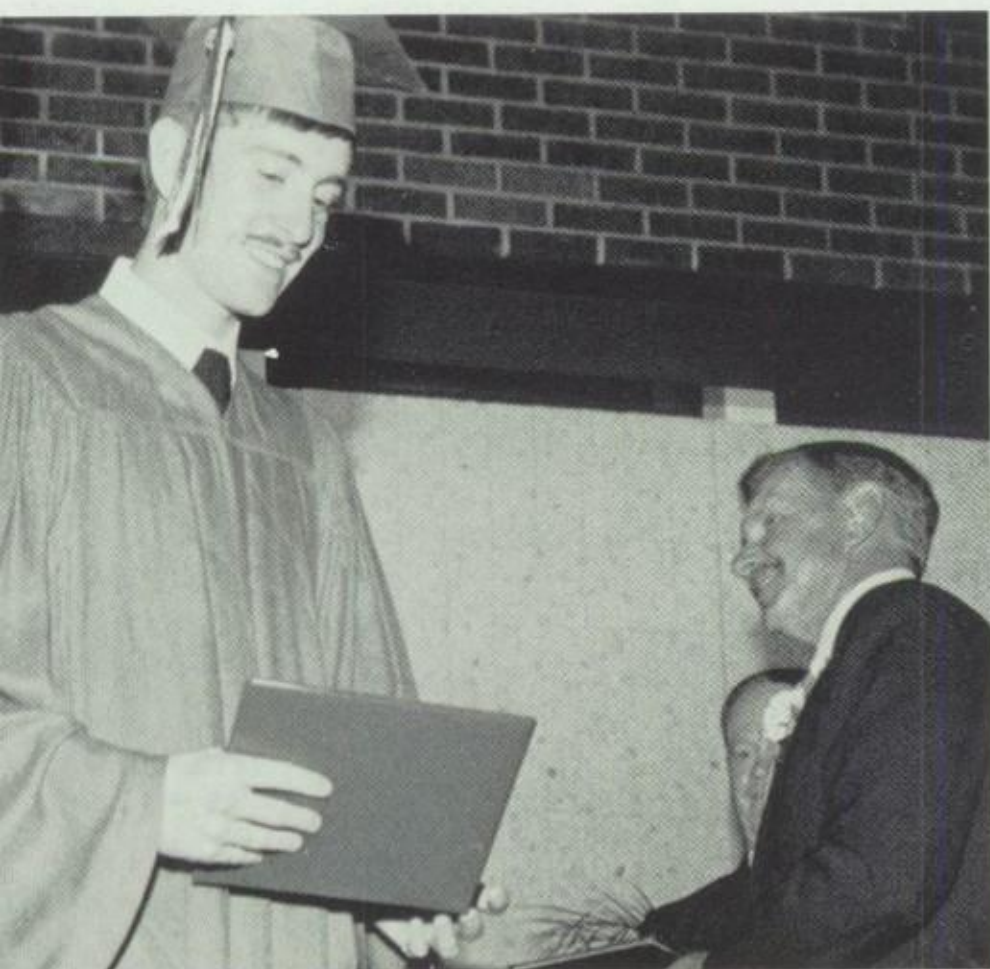

As Mrs. Zehner explains the parent diploma, Kris Gacono waits patiently to present it to his parents, Carl and MaryJane Gacono.

Smiling broadly, Scott Brinser walks to his seat after receiving his diploma.

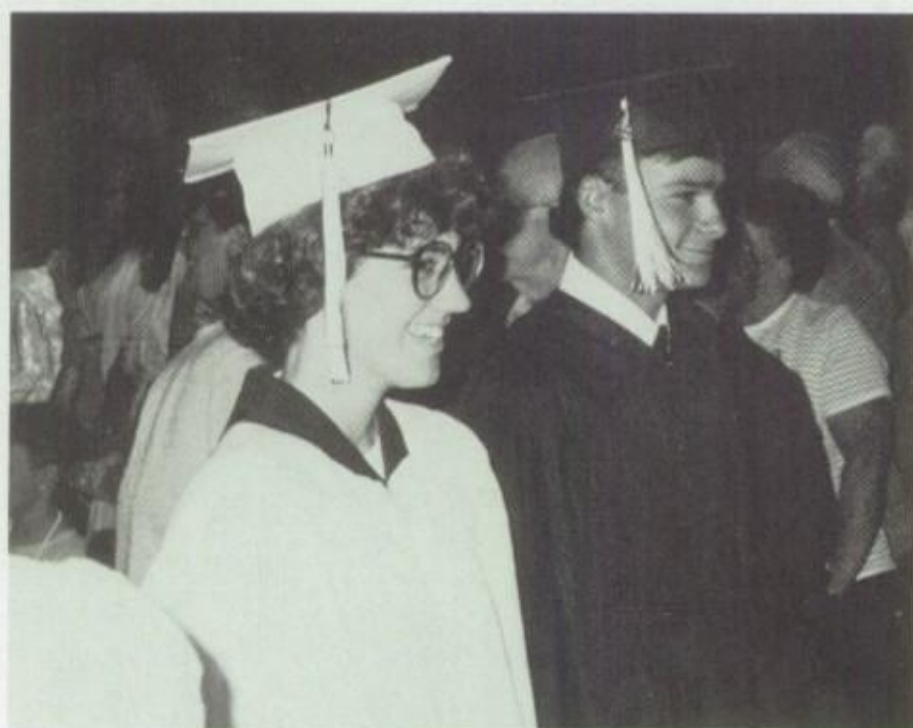

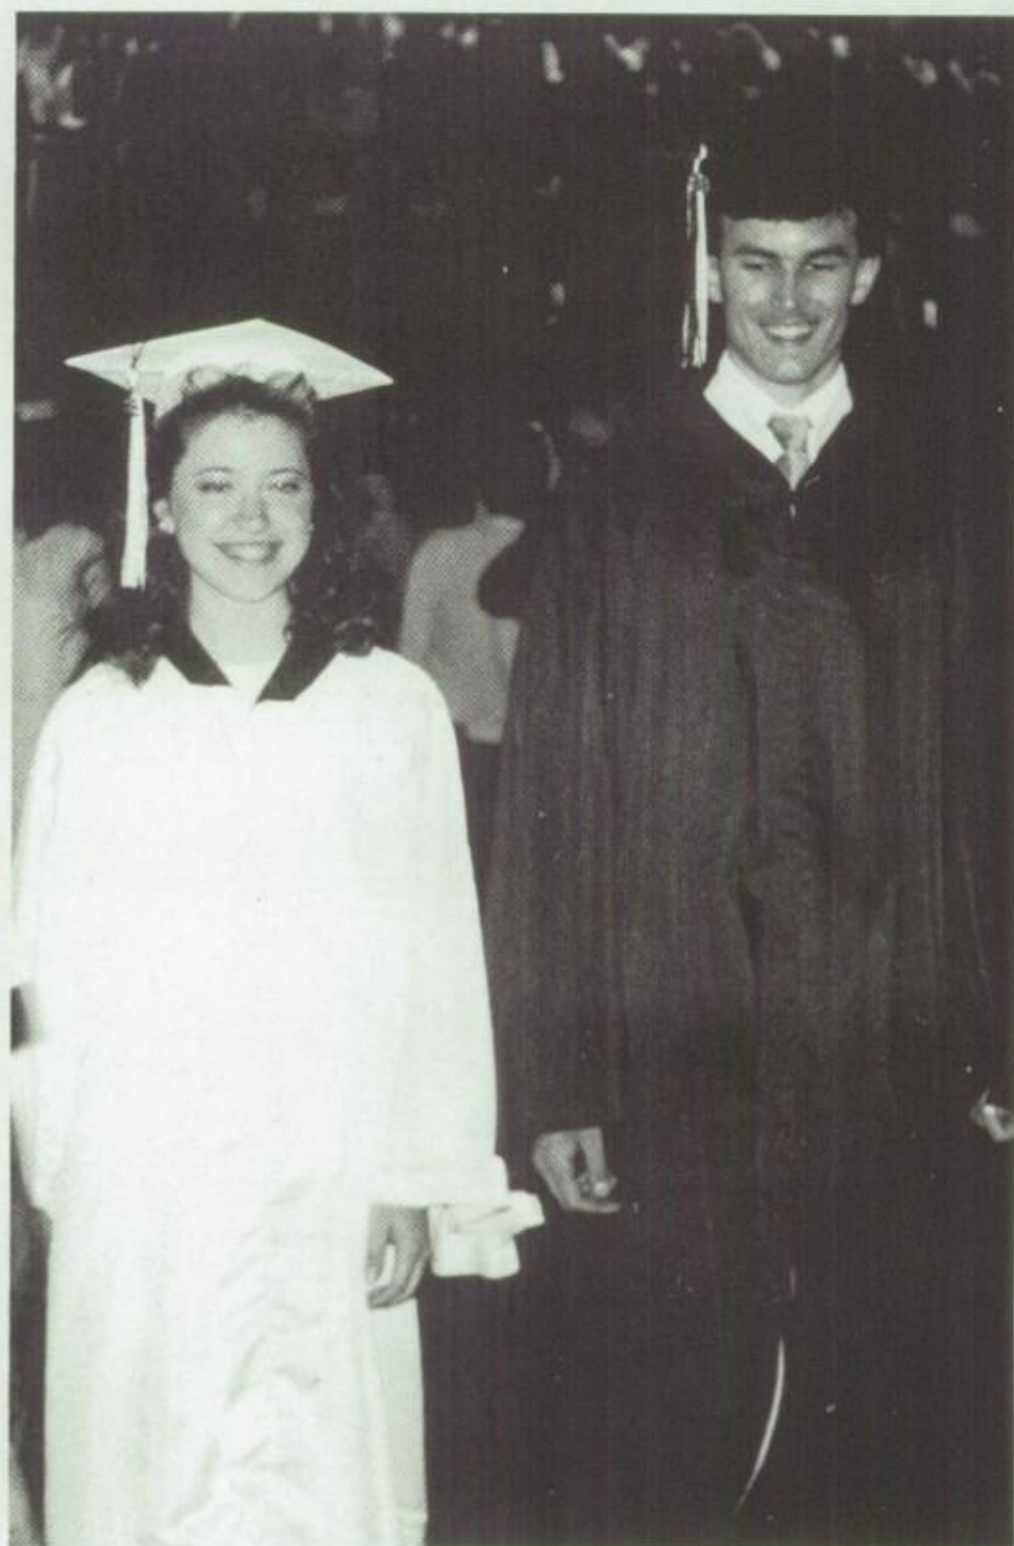

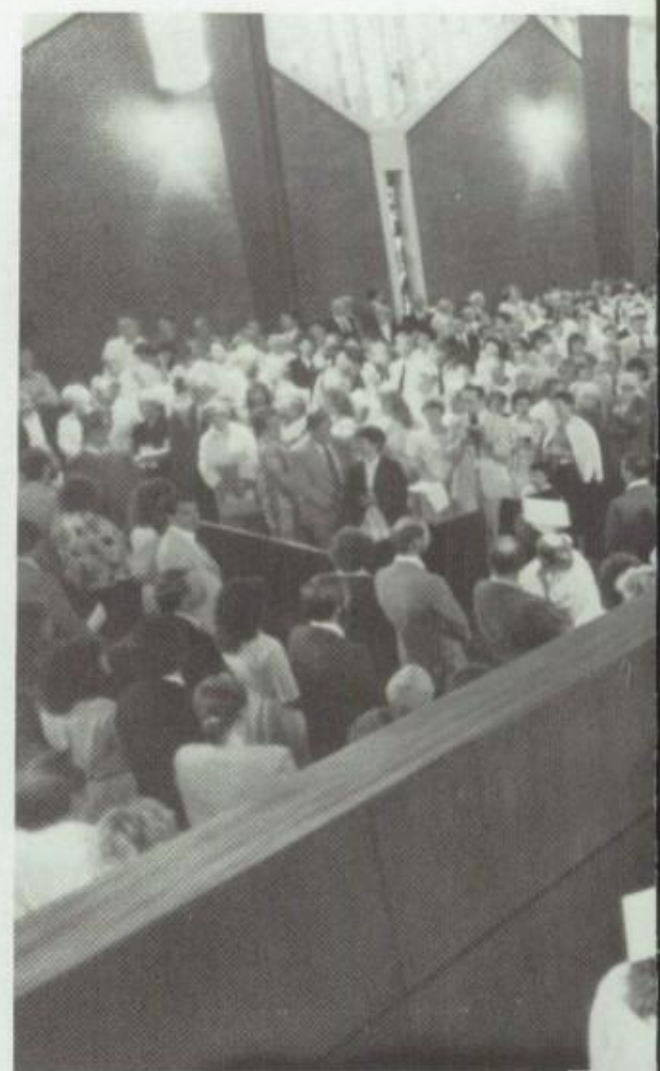

Speaking to the audience, Mr. Worcester prepares to present the class to the school board.

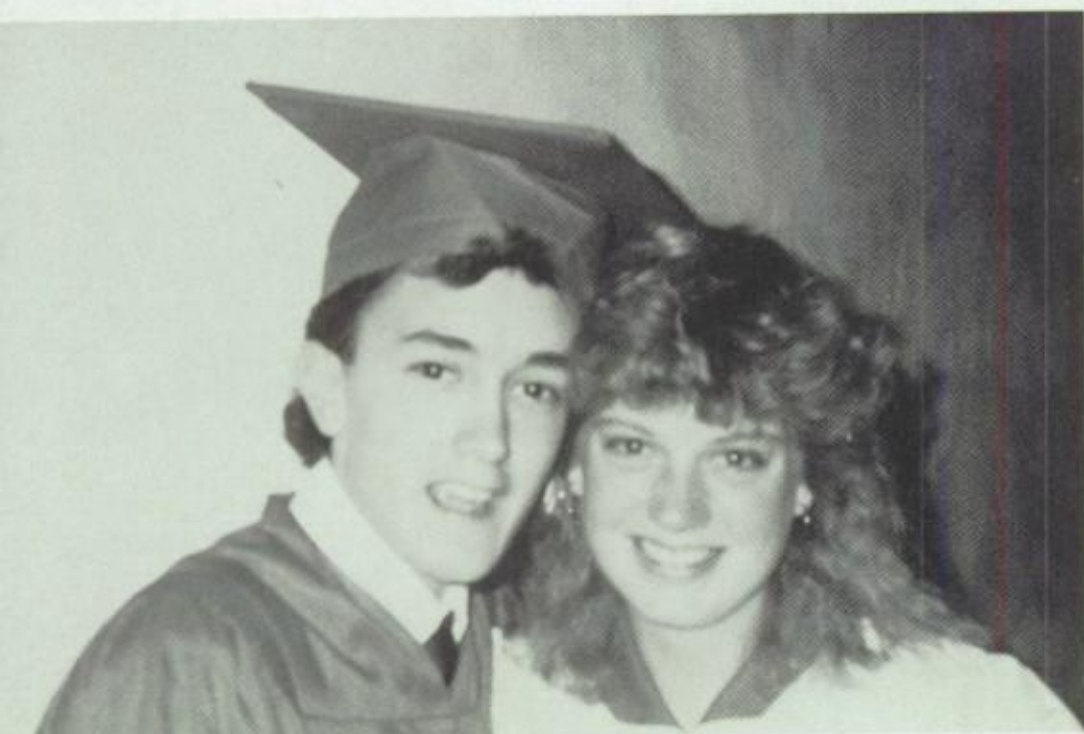

Receiving her diploma, Barb Arnold shakes Mr. Wagner's hand.

Waiting to enter the church, Jim Plummer and Todd Bowser concentrate on not tripping as they walk down the aisle.

THE TIME HAS COME,
WHEN OUR HIGH SCHOOL YEARS ARE DONE.
NOW IT'S TIME TO START A NEW LIFE,
FOR MOST, THIS THOUGHT CUTS LIKE A KNIFE.

WE HAVE THE TALENT TO DO WHAT'S RIGHT,
SOON WE'LL BE STARTING A LONG HARD FLIGHT.
SURE THERE WERE THINGS THAT WE LACKED,
BUT NOW WE CAN NEVER GO BACK.

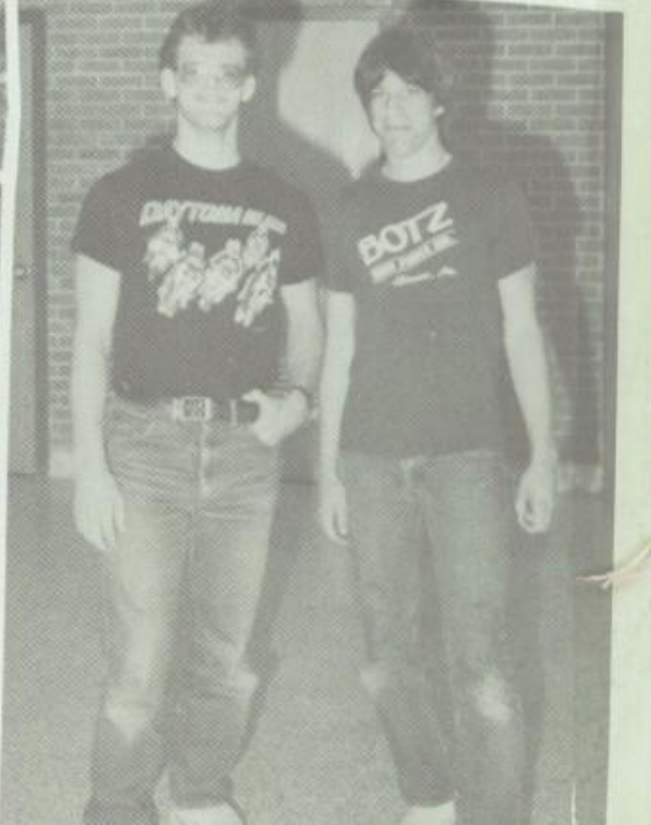

BEING SENIORS WAS THE BEST,
WE SURVIVED ALL THE TEACHERS' TESTS.
THE TIMES WE ALL SHARED WERE VERY GRAND,

AND THERE WAS ALWAYS SOMEONE THERE TO LEND A HAND.

EVEN THOUGH THERE WAS GOOD AND BAD,
MOST OF US WERE HAPPY AND NOT SAD.
NOW WE'RE OFF TO WHO KNOWS WHERE,
I HOPE OUR FRIENDS WILL ALWAYS BE THERE.
PLEASE TRY TO KEEP IN TOUCH,
BECAUSE WE LOVE EVERYBODY VERY MUCH.

In deep humility.

For all that we have come to know

The truth that sets men free.

The future's ours to possess.

For what we are we owe to
